The image contains text in a natural reading format. However, due to the nature of the text, it appears to be a mixture of different articles or sections, possibly from a newspaper or magazine. The text is not clearly organized into paragraphs, making it difficult to extract coherent information. It includes various topics such as news, stories, and possibly advertisements, but the content is not clearly distinguishable enough to provide a meaningful summary or translation.

Hello, 271!
Mrs. Will Sledge.

Frazer went up to Charlotte yesterday with her brother, Mr. Sam Colvin, of Church street, removing at the Woods-Sledge mansion, both of Charlotte.

The marriage of Miss Caldine Bradford to Miss Clara Langford, of Nixa, Thursday morning, to attend the meeting of synod.

Rev. D. N. McLauchlin arrived from Woodward Wednesday afternoon.

We failed to get the proceedings of the anniversary of the woman's suffrage night, illustrating with many orders as she could fill it in with pearls and mother of pearl trims.

A large assortment of beautiful pieces of China, Salad Bowls, Cake Plates, Vases and many other odds objects plain and pretty designs, in rich colors and delicate shades artistically painted.

Our lot of Japanes and the prettiest exhibit of Art to be found anywhere in China, and prices are a shade lower than some of the hand painted ones.

HAVILAND DINNER SETS

We are going to Sell Jewelry

To every man in Chester and the surrounding country before we have been in business two years. We are going to impress everybody who comes into this store that this is the place to buy jewelry, because when a customer leaves, he says, "You've got the best place in town. And we are sure you know what you have when you buy an article from Robinson. Ask from this important point, we are always glad to see you, whether you buy or not, and we will make you feel at home."
