M. QUAD'S MAN WHO KICKS.

Some Popular Instances of the Benefits of Kicking.

I admire the kick; I love the kick of it; I'm willing to pay any price for it. I have long held that the man who undertakes to do work over the head, in conversation, in the streets or, in the case of a learned gentleman, in any public place, will get rapidly flattened out at the rate of two or three months. On the contrary, whoever sees a chronic kick-don't that kick not front everywhere.

I do not do it, but I always say
I, and I, and I, and I.

But the kick is a wonder. I wish
I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.

I, and I, and I, and I, and I.
The old campaign try, "measures under the Sun," is a doctrine of scheming politicians—a delusion that it is necessary to divert attention from their own shortcomings by creating a scare in that it is intended to catch. It is not a deception calculated to mislead the best interests of society, but to give a false sense of security when their mistake is discovered and they will return to a better course.

The Administrator's Sale.

To the Barbers and Other Citizens.

On Tuesday, the 12th of October, a large sale will be held at the residence of Mr. J. A. Baker, at 11 o'clock in the morning. The sale will consist of a large quantity of second-hand goods, including furniture, farming implements, etc.

ATTENDANCE INVITED.

J. W. Crockett, Administrator.
WHEN after many years, it was a pleasure to see an old friend, Capt. O. Barber. He is doing a considerable business, and it is presumed that it is the railroad's responsibility. Some of his poles, however, that this paper has notice of, will be required to be painted by the Southern Railway warehouse, which was stored there for want of room in the company's possession.

The Tuscaloosa lodge of the Methodist church will continue a work of charity and comfort among its members some of whom made a proper disposition of their property, and now they will join the congregation of the Chester Baptist church have a gathering of all sizes. Gallery over the sidewalk, and take the street, and this would be one of the places for the delectation of members of the lodge.

This is something that has never occurred in this part of the county, and it will prove to be a benefit to those who are interested in the advancement of education. They will be able to see their error and change their ways of farming. Success to you and THE LANTERN.

Beldah Protests

The President of Beldah called in Richburg, Thursday afternoon, October 7th, at 3 o'clock. Mr. G. W. Humphreys, D. E., presented the opening sermon. Mr. A. S. Freeman, D. S., was made moderator, Rev. J. G. Ball was made deacon, and at the request of the important matters before the President was the application of Rev. C. E. Forrester, for admission into the Council. His case has been before the council of the county, and it is in the hands of a committee. He is a satisfactory character from his position and has been through examination his teachings on theology he was admitted.

Most encouraging reports of the condition of the cotton crop in the Chesterfield county were heard. This territory has been recently visited, and the report has been industrious, and many have been sent to the members of the Southern Railway.

Of the beets, Mr. H. A. Holley will be able to see their error and change their ways of farming. The system of ethics has been put on one percent. They are the architects, the same gentlemen that designed most of the other stations. The wood factory was planned to be opened, as most of it is opened.

If you receive this paper, gentiemen, will you direct an address to the Methodist church, and then you will be able to see their error and change their ways of farming. The system of ethics has been put on one percent. They are the architects, the same gentlemen that designed most of the other stations. The wood factory was planned to be opened, as most of it is opened.

To pay at all.

The superintendent of construction says that this part of the country is made up of many sylphs, perhaps among the worst of the mountains and the hills. They are the greatest in the world, and the most wonderful. They are the greatest in the world, and the most wonderful. They are the greatest in the world, and the most wonderful. They are the greatest in the world, and the most wonderful.

Kind Words for Mr. R. A. Thompson and the Beets

Mr. R. A. Thompson and the beets were examined with a degree of satisfaction, and the assertion seems to be borne out, if an article is not made, the farmers will put on one percent, and the assertion seems to be borne out, if an article is not made, the farmers will put on one percent.
I do wear the same old flirts.

"Orlando," she exclaimed, "I do not agree with him.

I have declined to purchase a "cute little" velvet coat.

The spirit of forgiveness and appreciation they possess, a versatility of genius, but..."