A FARMERS' PAPER

We have arranged to offer the free gift for the Lantern, for a limited time. The price of the paper is 1.00 per year, but for the present offer, we are willing to offer it gratis. The paper will be distributed among the farmers as the present supply lasts. Please note that this offer is not to be renewed after the present supply is exhausted.

OTHER COMBINATIONS

Many farmers desire some stationery and reading material and should be furnished with a good library. There are a number of combinations that come near this, and we will send the Farmer and Friend free with The Lantern to those who apply for this paper.

in the press. He has been put on trial for the murder of one of his henchmen, who was attempting to arrest him on a charge of robbery. The trial is expected to be a long and costly one, and the public will be closely watching the outcome.

The State Legislature, which meets in Columbia today, will consider several measures aimed at improving the state's agricultural and industrial economy. One of the most important issues on the agenda is the proposed state-owned power plant at Lake City, which would generate electricity for use in the state's railroads and factories. The plant would be built using federal funds, and the state would own and operate it.

In other news, the town of Eureka Mill has been the scene of a robbery this week. The victims of the crime, who were working at the mill, lost a significant amount of money and property. The police are investigating the case, and they are appealing for information from the public.
