THE LANTERN.

A PALTAL PALL.

By Hope T. Bridges.

The Rev. Mr. Bridges has arrived from Kansas City, where he made a very prosperous and most public appearance as the head of the National Republican movement for the oncoming election. The meeting was held Thursday night in the Methodist Church and was well attended.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. John Daniel returned from New York City yesterday. Mrs. Hires Mclean returned to school yesterday. Mrs. W. A. Baker and children have returned to New York.

To the Merchants.

The benevolent citizens of this city are again forced to call public attention to the recently received reports of wanton cruelty and depredations committed by wild horses, 4 years old, who have not a single head of hair. The horses are known to travel in packs and whenever they are disturbed, they proceed to make the most of their opportunity by robbing the farmer's storehouses.

Spring & Summer Footwear.

We have a splendid selection of boys' and girls' footwear now in stock. We solicit your attention to the following prices:

- Baby's and Toddler Shoes: $2.50 each
- Children's Shoes: $3.00 each
- Boys' Shoes: $4.00 each
- Girls' Shoes: $3.50 each
