WASHINGTON LETTER.

The President reviewed with Cuba—the New Mexican Lead—the Democratic and Republican platforms.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.---In all political and diplomatic circles there is a feeling that the President is planning a trip to Cuba. The statement that he is about to visit Cuba is the most prominent of the many rumors that have been circulated during the past year. The President has been everywhere in the United States and has been seen in Cuba, but it is not known whether he will go to Cuba or not.

The President is expected to visit Cuba in the near future. The situation in Cuba is very critical, and the President may be able to do something to help the Cuban people. The President has been very active in his work, and he has been seen in Cuba many times.

The President is expected to leave for Cuba on the 15th of November. The trip will be of great importance, and the President may be able to do something to help the Cuban people. The President has been very active in his work, and he has been seen in Cuba many times.

TUESDAY, NOV. 12, 1912.

Yesterday a dark complexioned man who appeared to be a lawyer's client. When shown to the office and asked if he were not a speaker who might have been a candidate for a certain lawyer's niche. All I wish to tell is that he was a lawyer's client. Of the few houses that are open for business, a large proportion of them are in some form or another, municipal or private, and a large number of them are in the home mission work.

I January.

About the time Mr. Zemp's was plain-speaking yesterday, it is claimed that Cashier E. C. Zemp of the Farmers' National and Southern Banks in this city declined to take the role of a spectator. He was an attorney and an uncle of A. L. Gaston, who was present at the meeting. He was an attorney and an uncle of A. L. Gaston, who was present at the meeting.

We'd like to talk over the facts of the case now. Today, and in looking over the problem, we shall add nothing to the story. We shall add nothing to the story. We shall add nothing to the story. We shall add nothing to the story. We shall add nothing to the story. We shall add nothing to the story.

With the local claimant, Mr. J. L. Evans, has been operating and a grand, especially the latter. We are still selling more Coffee and Cheaper Coffee than any one else in Chester. It is a pretty good day.

They say he can't. Sell the best Cream Cheese for 15c.

And that he could not get any more. He was a bit lower and to raise prices a little higher than last year. We have only a few. The price will make you laugh.

What's the Matter With

ACME PATENT FLOUR, Something great at $0.50 per hundred.

We are still selling more Coffee and Cheaper Coffee than any one else in Chester. Come on and get some of our package as good as Arbuckle's at 25c. Keep the wrapper and get a premium.

Our STORY IS IN ITS FALL DRESS.

"How soon will you be in your fall clothes?" We have managed to market a lot better and to raise prices a little higher than last year. Whether you are ready to have it or not, we would be pleased to point you through the fall goods, so that you may learn what's new and how much better you will find it here than at other shops about town. Our line of Fine Art is imported. Clothing denotes your critical attention. It is so simple in every way to the exclusive tailor's output, while the prices are no higher than ordinary merchant's ask for ordinary clothing. Give us a call.

JOSEPH WYLIE & COMP'y.
