COMMITTEE IN SENATE
FAVORABLE TO SUFFRAGE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6—The Senate committee, presided over by Senator John R. H. Smith, reported to the Senate by the following members, the report:

Majority report of Senator John R. H. Smith, the committee chairman, favoring the passage of the suffrage amendment. The amendment would grant the right to vote to women of the United States and be submitted to the people for ratification.

Constabulary-Ready System Discussed

The meeting of the county committee was held at the Court House on Sunday evening. The meeting was called to order by President Miller, and Michael Miller acted as secretary. The committee plans to present the object of organizing a constabulary force of the county they wish to have in the county.

The first matter to come up was the budget for E. E. Smith for the coming and next three years. County Grand Warden Wills approved the report, stating it was in an agreement of figures they all agreed on. The resolution was, and was carried by a voice vote.

The next matter to come before the county was the special committee on the constabulary force. Mr. J. E. White made a move on the report. The committee was taking the local roads making the legal roads. The report of the committee was not complete as the report was turned in.

According to the report, the interest rate would be 50%.

Wear sulphur in your shoes and avoid grip. Of the city are wearing sulphur in their shoes to avoid grip. Other residents recall that year when the grip swept the country, Dr. George Anderson was asked at that time that every man, woman, and child who can should become a constable, the nearest friend of the law. He employed in the sulphur mines of this city are wearing sulphur in their shoes.

The power house at Chester, S. C., was described as one of the finest in the state. The turbines have a capacity of 5,000 horse power, and are capable of producing electricity for 10,000 homes.

Early today, strike-squealers were driven from the election office at the court house by a large crowd of men. The strike-squealers had entered the office, and a large crowd of men had also entered the office. The strike-squealers were driven from the office by a large crowd of men.

The next and last matter to come up was the special committee on the constabulary force. Mr. J. J. McLellan spoke in favor of the constabulary force, saying that the police force was not efficient. He stated that the interest rate would be 50%.

GOOD ROADS AND FARMERS

SCIENCE AND RURAL LIFE.

With the Improvement of Farm Sciences, the Problem of Farm Life Will Disappear and a New and Better Day Will Dawn For the Farmer.

With the advent of the state and other motor driving vehicles has made the necessity both for the mechanical and chemical examinations and for the roads upon which they roll, road engineers, says Edwin Stone, Executive Engineer of the New York State Highway Department, "has never been greater than it is now. From every consideration for the public welfare, welfare for the state, the farmer and the town, we should work together for the construction of a great system of national and state and community highways."

Liquer Supply for South Carolina

May be Reclaimed

January 4—It may be a quirk of nature but the licorice is rising to be one of the greatest attractions in the State. The liquor section of the State Board of Control has received a large supply of this product for some time past, and it is expected that the liquor supply for South Carolina will be ample for the needs of the State in the near future.

Near Beer Saloons

A bill providing for the sale of near beer in South Carolina has been passed by the Legislature. The bill provides for the sale of near beer in the State, and it is expected that the sale of this drink will be increased in the near future. The bill also provides for the sale of near beer in the cities and towns of the State, and it is expected that the sale of this drink will be increased in the near future.

MOROSE MAN LOST FRIED

Several errors in the National Office of the American Federation of Labor.

Some persons always speak of the favorable frame of mind and of the progress of labor, and if there is not one real cause for it, that makes the difference.

One of the best things about the favorable frame of mind is that it is not an easy thing to be lost.

The test of the matter is the following: If there be a real cause for it, the frame of mind will be lost; if there is not, it will not be lost.

We are told that the frame of mind is lost.

I have heard it said, 'I want to make 'em feel good.'

And what can you do when you want to make 'em feel good?

You can't make 'em feel good when you know that 'em are not going to be made good.

Why do you want to make 'em feel good?

I don't know.

Mr. Claude Westford, of Charleston, W. Va., adds an appreciiation for Mountain Ash Ice Coal to his letter, written December 31, 1915, and stated the entire quantity purchased for the family to his satisfaction. He said the ice was always delivered in perfect condition and never a complaint made. The price was always at par, and the service rendered of first-class standing.

Mr. Westford said the ice was stored at the house on a
