The Colored State College,

Orangeburg is called by negroes, "The Athens of South Carolina," and a fitting name it is for the educational and social activities of the negroes in the vicinity.

It is the only college in the state which is entirely attended by negroes, and it is the only college in the state which is entirely supported by negroes.

The negroes of Orangeburg are enthusiastic about their college and are proud of it.

THE LANTERN

A Trip West.

We have just returned from a trip to the West, which was a most enjoyable and instructive experience. The journey was made by train, and we had the opportunity to see many interesting sights along the way.

We arrived in the beautiful city of San Francisco, known for its picturesque buildings and bustling streets. We spent several days exploring the city, visiting museums, and enjoying the local cuisine.

The next day, we took a train to Yosemite National Park, where we marveled at the stunning scenery of the mountains and valleys. We trekked through the forest, took pictures, and even went on a short hike to see the famous Wawona Tree.

From Yosemite, we continued our journey to the Grand Canyon, where we gazed in awe at the immense size of the canyon and the vibrant colors of the rock formations. We also went on a boat ride on the Colorado River, which offered a unique perspective on the canyon.

Our final destination was Las Vegas, where we spent an exhilarating day at the casinos and trying our luck at the blackjack tables. We also attended a show at the famous Venetian Resort and Casino, which left us astounded by the elaborate sets and spectacular performances.

In conclusion, our trip to the West was a memorable and enriching experience. We came back from the trip with a newfound appreciation for the natural beauty and cultural richness of the region.

Yours truly,

J. E. RAMFSEY

THE TRIPPLETS.—Mary Triplett, eldest daughter of Glover and Clauda Triplett, was born May 19, 1868, and died August 19, 1877. Little Mary was a most interesting child, amiable in disposition, kind and obedient both at school and at home. When it was feared that she would not recover, her mother asked if she was willing to die, and this young child replied that it was the Lord's will, she must not be good enough to live, and to be with Jesus. When the coffin was placed inside the church, it was immediately surrounded with flowers from the family, the friends, and the tender hands of her many little friends.

She leaves two little sisters, a swallowed mother, and aged grandparent in the earthly home, while she has gone to her reward.

KEEP TO THE GRAVELED WALK THAT LEADS INTO THEIR MAMMOTH ESTABLISHMENT.
To redress your grievances. Some public meeting should be held to discuss this question, and the results will be published in the newspaper. If you do this, I assure you that your desire for justice will be met.

The new law, which will go into effect next month, will also provide for better protection of farmers and their families in cases of labor disputes. I urge you, therefore, to come to the meeting and take part in this important discussion.

Mr. Smith, we are all aware of the need for change and progress in this region. Let us work together to ensure that justice and fairness are at the center of our efforts, and let us not forget the importance of solidarity and unity in our efforts for a better future.

Dr. Thomas A. Douglas, your support is crucial. Your influence and voice can make a significant difference. I look forward to working with you and all of you to advocate for the rights of all farmers and their families.

Thank you for listening and for your dedication to justice and progress. Let us continue this important dialogue and work towards a brighter future for all.
