COTTON TO NOVEMBER.

Important Report of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Cotton has been the most valuable crop in the United States, and the most important to the farmers. The Secretary of Agriculture, D. B. Gr. B. White, has submitted his report for the year ending November 14, showing the following results:

- Cotton grown in the United States in the year ending November 14: 1,653,932 bales.
- Cotton grown in the southern states: 1,230,732 bales.
- Cotton grown in the northern states: 453,470 bales.

The report shows that cotton has been grown in all parts of the United States, and that the production has been greatly increased during the past year. The most important cotton-growing states are Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi.

VISIT TO OLD COUNTRY.

The Old Home of Andrew Jackson.

Theolute, Tues., Nov. 16th: The tour to the old home of Andrew Jackson, in Alabama, was a most interesting event. The tour was arranged by the American Association for the Preservation of Historical Monuments, and was a great success.

The old home of Andrew Jackson is a plain, one-story frame house, surrounded by a fence. The house was built by Andrew Jackson in 1824, and was the home of his family until his death in 1845.

The house is now owned by the United States government, and is open to the public. The interior of the house is very simple, and the furniture is of the 19th century style. The house contains many interesting relics of Andrew Jackson's life, including his desk, his writing table, and his chair.

The old home of Andrew Jackson is a national monument, and is a place of great historical interest. It is a fitting memorial to one of the most interesting and influential figures in American history.

Christmas Gifts

In selecting Christmas gifts, either for old, for a lady or gentleman, the following FOUR points are looked for almost without exception by the giver, and always appreciated by the receiver:

1. A gift should be appropriate to the receiver. A fret-piece of such high class jewelry is acceptable at any age and time.

2. A gift should be useful in a reasonable sense. Though something you can use easily, and beauty in jewelry does occasionally settle a case.

3. A gift should be of value in some way, as well as useful, and beauty in jewelry does occasionally settle a case.

4. A gift should be durable as well as beautiful to serve as a lasting as well as pleasing remembrance.

We buy only the finest goods, using the best and most reliable workmen, and tell you what an article is worth as well as how it was made.
