LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE. An Address to the People of South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The executors of the law and order league, which was organized recently, have requested that we present to the people of South Carolina a formal address in behalf of the league and its purposes.

J. W. Hand, Chairman, H. B. Secretary.

The necessity expressed by the executors is to call the people's attention to the necessity of supporting the law and order league in its efforts to bring about a better condition in the state. The expressions of the executors are fully understood in all quarters.

To the interested public.

It is scarcely necessary to point out that the present state of labor is one of great danger and difficulty. The present economic conditions are such that the cooperation of the laboring classes is necessary in order to bring about a satisfactory condition.

The present situation is such that the present state of labor is one of great danger and difficulty.

The present economic conditions are such that the cooperation of the laboring classes is necessary in order to bring about a satisfactory condition.

W. B. Nails Red Hackett Store
In selecting Christmas gifts, other than for a child, for a lady or gentleman, the following FOUR suggestions are looked for almost without exception by the giver, and always appreciated by the receiver:

1. A gift should be appropriate to the receiver. A fine piece of solid high class jewelry is acceptable to anyone at any time.

2. A gift that is useful is preferable to useless trinkets, such as cheap jewelry and petty made over trinkets.

3. A gift should be beautiful (to please the eye as well as the heart, and beauty in jewelry defies description). It should be something upon which the possessor will remember for a long time to come.

4. A gift should be durable as well as beautiful to serve as a lasting as well as pleasant reminder.

We buy only the finest goods, use only the best and most reliable workmen, and tell you what an article is worth, not what it costs.

ROBINSON'S GOODS CONTAIN ALL FOUR
