THE LANTERN.

PUBLISHED THURSDAY AND SATURDAY.

About Eight Hours.

Prof. E. J. Bacon retina from the school room, for which he is the principal, some days ago. The teacher had given extra satisfaction. Mr. Bacon could easily tell that secure for his art and his place among the profession. He had been after the work, and he found it was the best that could be expected. The teacher, however, was the last one to take his attention. It is fast being known and established as an educational establishment. Mr. Bacon is a splendid example of the way it should be done. The work is very gratifying, and he would like to be able to do it.

Visits to Old Country.

How to Find a Family.

It is a common practice for the old country to find a family. Mrs. Brown, who has been in the habit of finding families for many years, says that she is always looking for them. She has found that a family is the best way to get along in the world. Mrs. Brown is a very kind and efficient woman, and she always makes a point of finding families. She says that she has found many families, and that she is always looking for more. She is a very good worker, and she always makes a point of finding families. She is a very good worker, and she always makes a point of finding families.

Imposition South.

Large Parties Attracted to South Carolina and Elsewhere.

The imposition of taxes and the imposition of the Virginia government have caused a great many parties to be attracted to South Carolina and elsewhere. The imposition of taxes is a very serious matter, and it is causing a great deal of distress. The imposition of the Virginia government is also causing a great deal of distress. The imposition of taxes is a very serious matter, and it is causing a great deal of distress. The imposition of the Virginia government is also causing a great deal of distress.

A Very Bloody Rescue.

The law-abiding people of South Carolina and elsewhere are shocked and dismayed by the recent rescue of a member of the Virginia government. The rescue was made on the 21st of last month, and it was made by a member of the Virginia government. The preference of the "diy"tb" to renair and execute it with greater energy. They have also been definite in their figures; they will not carelessly complete work which ought to have been done, but it did not follow that the county supervising engineer was not to do more the next year. There were some doubts as to whether he could do it, but the legislators were of the opinion that he could do it, and they voted to go on with the work. A bill was also prepared to be presented to the legislature providing for the improvement of the highways.

The Immigration meeting in Washington during the week was attended by a large number of delegates. They were in favor of the establishment of a bureau of immigration, with a secretary and such other officers as the law provided for. A bill was prepared to be presented to the legislature providing for the improvement of the highways.

At the Baptist Church Sunday night, Capt. C. A. Evans was the speaker. He spoke on the subject of improving land that is now going to be ruined, and repopulating the rural districts. He was one of the most active men in the movement, and he was in his 80th year. When a young man, he had traveled over the southwestern part of the state, and he was in favor of opening up the back country to better advantage.

Author of Mrs. Wigg's Boys Home. What has just been bought a $10,000 sum?" Does not mean that the famous lady who found a home for 100 boys and who has recently changed the dwelling place among the highest residential section of Louisville, is not always in demand. Mrs. Wigg was born in Boston, 72 year ago, but brought "Mrs. Wigg and the boys" to the portion of the city where she has been living in her retirement. And they have been a joy to all who have known them, the comfort in their home in a busy world. The news of the purchase of the property at 14 S. Jutland avenue, one of the finest residential streets in the city, was transmitted to the general public by Mr. G. B. Todd, 37 St. James court, one of the directors of the company that has made the purchase. The house, which has purchased the residence and is now the home of Mrs. Wigg's Boys Home, is well located, in a quiet and beautiful neighborhood, and is surrounded by large trees and flowers, making it a delightful home for the boys.
