1-18-1901

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- January 18, 1901

J T. Bigham
There was in the city this week an extraordinary meeting of the most remarkable member of the public. The meeting, which was held in Mr. Thompson's, was attended by all the leading citizens of the city, and a large number of visitors from other parts of the state. The meeting was called to order at 2 p.m., and after a short preliminary, the business of the day began. The first order of business was the presentation of a resolution to Mr. Thompson, expressing the thanks of the meeting for the aid he had rendered in the successful conclusion of the late Mr. Patton, and existing suffrage laws, and the Burdick-Burton-Burton-Gerrymandering made necessary in the case of Marlboro, Chesterfield, Darling, and Berkeley districts. The resolution was adopted unanimously, and a copy was ordered to be sent to Mr. Thompson at his office in New York.

A small group of people then gathered at the corner of the building to watch the proceedings. It was a clear and bright day, and the sun shone brightly on the crowd. The group was composed of men and women of all ages, and they all seemed to be very interested in what was going on. The air was filled with the sound of conversation, and the sound of the dogs barking was very noticeable. The people were all very much interested in the proceedings, and they all seemed to be very pleased with the way the meeting was going.

The meeting lasted for about two hours, after which the members adjourned to a room in the building where they continued to work until late in the evening. The members worked very hard, and they all seemed to be very pleased with the success of the meeting. The meeting adjourned at 11 p.m., after which the members all went home to their respective homes.

The next day the members resumed their work, and they all worked very hard until late in the evening. The meeting adjourned at 11 p.m., after which the members all went home to their respective homes.

The meeting was very successful, and the members all seemed to be very pleased with the success of the meeting. The meeting adjourned at 11 p.m., after which the members all went home to their respective homes.
Fire car loads of furniture are now on exhibition at W. R. Nail’s Red Racket Store. We now have virtually four stores thrown into and operated as one. Never before in all of our mercantile history have we been in better shape to serve you. We have adopted for our motto the following three Golden Rules: Underbuy, Undersell, Cold Cash in Advance. These rules constitute the true system of merchandizing of the coming age of the twentieth century. You may touch the principles of the people and they will grunt, while, just touch their pocket-books and they are clear-headed and wide-awake upon extravagance, and its influence in lowering prices cannot be disputed. That crown and around the Red Racket Store points to the best values for the least money with the same accuracy as the needle to the pole.

everybody has a "remedy" to be.compared. For this, and the other ailments—from a cold to a cancer—there is the so-called "insidious" treatment. There are no gainful men, no lacerated physicians, and your condition is not so easily interpreted. Simples are often effective and often so cheap, we have therefore been in better shape to serve you. We have adopted the following three Golden Rules: Underbuy, Undersell, Cold Cash in Advance. These rules constitute the true system of merchandizing of the coming age of the twentieth century. You may touch the principles of the people and they will grunt, while, just touch their pocket-books and they are clear-headed and wide-awake upon extravagance.

Our efforts shall surpass those of previous years in making our business more profitable to ourselves and our patrons. The twentieth century, ushered in with the year 1901, shall find the Valley Racket filled with unheard of bargains.

Since we have adopted the cash system, our business has been marching on to progress, and far exceeded our expectations. See our line of DRI Goods, Notions, Shoes, Ladies and Gents Underwear.

We have a fine line of

which we are selling cheap for cash. Have just received a pretty line of INFANTS’ CAPS AND FASCINATORS.

I am retiring from business today, having sold my entire stock to Charles Tyler, the

Mr. Albert E. Staback, and others. Owing to the pressure of business I am not able to attend to this line of trade, and it especially asked at all large amounts on my books to call on me before or after the 1st of the month. I desire to thank you for your patronage during my brief period of business and to wish all a happy and prosperous New Year. Respectfully,

J. E. STABACK.
