WASHINGTON LETTER.

Mr. Will Burdell, of Chester, will support the St. Louis nominees for the convention of the Knights of Pythias this week.

Mr. Burdell, who is a member of the grand lodge, said he was satisfied with the policies of the organization and was confident that the nominees would carry the day.

Mr. Burdell said he was a strong supporter of the organization and believed in its principles.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.

Baldwin T. Davis.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 21, 1906.

Baldwin T. Davis, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, arrived here yesterday morning for a conference with Mr. John Marshall Harlan, another Associate Justice, in connection with the case of the American Tobacco Company vs. the United States. The conference was held in the cigar room of the Supreme Court building.

Baldwin T. Davis, who is a native of Chester, is a member of the bar and was admitted to the bar in 1880. He is a graduate of the College of Law of the University of Illinois and has practiced law in Chester for many years. He is well known as a lawyer and is a member of the bar association of Chester.

The case of the American Tobacco Company vs. the United States was argued before the Supreme Court in October, 1903, and has been pending ever since.

The case involves the question of whether or not the American Tobacco Company is a legal entity, and if it is not, whether or not it is a trust, and if it is a trust, whether or not it is a legal trust.

The case has been a matter of much interest to the people of Chester, and many persons have testified in connection with the case.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Over-Work Weakens

It is the work of the kidneys to remove waste materials from the body. When the kidneys are not working properly, they can become overloaded and this can lead to impurities in the blood. It is important to maintain good health to help prevent kidney problems.

Don't make any mistake, but remember

All chronic illness, including those that appear severe, have their origin in defective eye health. I have used my MILLINERY STOCK for many years and can assure you of its value.

WASHINGTON D. C.

To the Editor:

I am writing to express my concern about the new millinery stock that has been offered for sale. I believe that it is not worth the price being offered and that it should be returned to the manufacturer.

THE NATION

HICKORY, H. C.

I have just received your letter, asking for a monument to the memory of the late Mr. John J. McKee. I am sorry to say that I do not have the funds to contribute to such a project. However, I would be willing to help in any way that I can, if you would like to discuss the matter further.

Yours truly,

T. B. Woods, Real Estate Broker.

I have now listed with me the following:

- 1,000 acres of farming lands for sale, first rate or above.
- Suitable for farming or cattle raising.
- Located within a mile of city limits, with new houses, barns, and pasture land. Enough room for cattle and farm equipment.
- We have a few good horses.
- We will negotiate with prospective buyers and will make a fair and reasonable offer for anyone interested.
