IDENTITY WOMAN DEAD IN HOTEL

Steakhouse Held in Host for Girls in Casablanca Until Early Last Week.

The woman found dead in a hotel last Saturday has been definitely identified as Lisa Malin of the Hotel de Voile in Casablanca. It was reported that she was allowed to return to her room by a policeman, and that the body was found by a servant.

The story of the sad events that occurred in Casablanca is as follows: Lisa Malin, a beautiful young woman, arrived in the city on November 22nd. She was accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Colvin, who had been attending to the business of the hotel. The two women spent the evening together, but about midnight Mrs. Colvin retired to her room, leaving Lisa alone.

The next morning, when the maid entered the room to make the bed, she found Lisa lying dead on the floor. The cause of death was not immediately known, but it is believed to have been asphyxiation. The body was taken to the morgue, and an autopsy was performed.

The case has caused much excitement in Casablanca, and efforts are being made to learn the cause of death. It is believed that Lisa Malin was a victim of some form of suicide, but the exact circumstances are unknown.

The police are investigating the case, and have taken statements from witnesses. The hotel has been closed, and an investigation is being held.

REMAINING INTRODUCTORY BILL

Museums for Buildings at York. Cherubin, and other plans, according to the act of January 19th. Regarding the building of a museum at York, it is stated that the time has arrived when the city should take steps to establish such a museum. The idea has long been entertained by the citizens, and it is believed that the time is ripe for the plan to be carried out.

FINISHING BILLS

Reports on Bills. The reports on the bills presented in the House of Commons have been made public. The bills are as follows:

1. A Bill for the establishment of a Museum at York.
2. A Bill for the establishment of a Museum at Cherubin.
3. A Bill for the establishment of a Museum at the Patent Office.

These bills have been referred to the appropriate committees, and will be discussed in the House of Commons at a later date.
Three Points of Superiority

Just one trial of the NEW POST TOASTIES, made in our splendid pure-food factories, reveals their pronounced superiority. A distinguishing characteristic being the presence of tiny crumbless kernels.

First, a splendid new flavour is developed in the NEW POST TOASTIES; the full essence of the corn, not found in other corn flakes.

Second, they have a body and freshness that prevents softening in cream and provides a nourishing, satisfying breakfast dish that one can chew, though deliciously tender and crisp.

And third, the NEW POST TOASTIES do not waste in the package through crumbling and breaking.

Thousands of housewives have "discovered" these new and decidedly better corn flakes for the open delight of their children and guests.

The NEW POST TOASTIES are crispier and daintier than common corn flakes, with better flavour, better body, and added economy.

Paraffined in parachute-sealed cartons to preserve the delicious corn crispness until opened at your table.

And remember—they're called

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

45 HEAD MULES AND HORSES

Coral Early at Work. Ruby, Sally and Emily, a trio of hard-working workers, go right to work at the start of the day. They are employed in the factory, and their early morning hours are spent in the packing room. They take care of the boxes, and make them ready for shipping. They are responsible for the quality of the product, and they work hard to ensure that all boxes are filled correctly.

Sally, the forewoman, is a strict but fair employer. She makes sure that all workers are on time, and that they are working efficiently. She is always available to help her workers, and she is respected by all of them.

Emily is a new worker, and she is still learning the ropes. She is eager to learn, and she is always willing to ask questions. Ruby is the oldest worker, and she is a valued member of the team. She is patient, and she always takes the time to help her colleagues.

Together, they are a hard-working team. They are dedicated to their work, and they are always willing to go the extra mile to ensure that the products are of high quality. They are proud of their work, and they are proud to be part of this team.

We've got'em from the highest to the lowest; can suit the rich and the poorest.

CONSTABLES TO BE DISCONTINUED

Runners from Columbia—Valle Citizens heard at Martin.

Sharkey, who received a few days before the arrival of the train, has been placed in the office of the Court House. He was appointed at the time the train arrived, and is expected to take charge of the constabulary force.

A number of the citizens of the town are opposing the appointment of Sharkey as constabulary officer.

The constabulary force was organized by the city authorities several years ago, but has never been active.

The proposed appointment of Sharkey as constabulary officer is causing a great deal of comment.

The constabulary force is not popular with the citizens of the town, and many of them are opposed to its continuation.

Prepayment Saved This Policy

Mr. Claude Westfall, of Clarksburg, W. Va., signed an application for a farm mortgage assessment on July 1, 1915, and paid the average quarterly payment of $1.10 to the agent, making a total payment to the Frazier's 1895, with final payment being for the following year. The legal deposit of $600 at first receipt, February 15th. The full purchase is subject to the approval of Judge W. M. Johnson, District Attorney, A. J. Finley, Clark County Treasurer, and Mr. C. H. Johnson, who has expressed his approval of the transaction. This sale, if approved by the Board, will be made to the highest bidder on August 1st.

The agent, however, when arrived at the scene of the sale, found that the entire cost of the property had been paid, and the transaction was then completed.

The property is located in the immediate vicinity of the town, and is surrounded by the finest class of farms. The buildings are of the best character, and the land is well suited for agriculture.
