OLD HOME OF ERASMUS ERIKSON AND ANGEL CARROLL—Birth Place of Angel Carroll and Scene of His Early Life.

By Mrs. Angeline Caroll.

After spending the day in Edinburgh, we set out at eight o'clock Saturday night for a short trip thirty miles north of Edinburgh. About two miles north of Edinburgh, near the parish of Leven, is the old farm house of Mr. Eriksen, in which our hero and his family were born. It is about one and a half miles from Leven. It is situated on the top of a small hill, and is surrounded by a high wall. Built in 1876, the oldest part of the building is the site of an ancient castle which stood on the same spot. The castle was built by the Earls of Erskine, a family of Scottish nobility. It was in ruins when it was purchased by Mr. Eriksen, who restored it to its former glory.

The house is a two-story building, with a large garden in front. The Eriksen family were well known for their hospitality and kindliness. Our hero, Angel Caroll, was born in this house in 1845, the son of a poor farmer and his family. He lived here until the age of seven, when his family moved to America.

I wish you all to visit this old place of the Eriksen family. I am sure it will be a thrilling experience for you.

Visit to Old County.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AND TO ORDER AT THE OFFICE

FRIEDAY, JANUARY 31, 1902

The matter of establishing two new stores in this city was brought up for discussion at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Grover, the President of the Board, said that he had been approached by several prominent citizens who were interested in the matter, and that he felt it would be in the best interests of the community if the matter were referred to the Board of Aldermen for further consideration.

Mr. Grover then proceeded to explain the advantages that would accrue from the establishment of two new stores in the city. He pointed out that the city was in a position to benefit from the increased business that would be created by the presence of these stores, and that the community would be able to enjoy the advantages of having a variety of goods available in one place.

The Board of Aldermen then adjourned without taking any action on the matter.

COLUMBIA LETTER.

Leland Scholarship for "Nobis Yung Man"—Bristol Session.

The Leland Scholarship for "Nobis Yung Man" was awarded to J. T. Smith, of the class of 1902, at the Bristol Session of the University of Virginia. The award was made on the recommendation of the faculty of the University, and is given to the student who shows the greatest promise of becoming a leader in the community.

The scholarship consists of a stipend of $500 per year, and is renewable for two years. The recipient is expected to use the funds for the purpose of furthering his education and preparing himself for a career in public service.

The Board of Trustees of the University of Virginia congratulates J. T. Smith on his achievement, and wishes him success in his future endeavors.

SPECIAL VALUES IN IRON BEDS.

For the benefit of those who are in the market for iron beds, the following special values are offered by the Hahn-Lowrance Company of Kent, Ohio:

1. For the last ten days, all iron beds will be sold at 50% off.
2. For the next ten days, all double iron beds will be sold at 35% off.

Our New Motto for 1904:

"The Best Goods, For the Least Money"

We have always had some Cheaper and Everything as Cheap.

For the present and until further notice, we will sell the Fries, "White Head Rice" for 12 cents per lb.

Schilder's Swiss-5th Tube at 15 cents.

Our hours go on in gratitude to the people of this community for the kind, loyal support they have given us in our endeavor to keep the Old Style and Fancy Hardware Store, and while we may not be able to sell everything lower than any one else, we will try.

We will always have some Cheaper and Everything as Cheap.

To the Farmers: If you haven't seen Alexander of Monticello, Trench, Moss, Cane, Rams, and Guano, you had better see him. Remember our motto, "The Best Goods and a Little Cheaper." We haven't mentioned it because they haven't the chance.
