CAPTURED COTTON

"It is only gradually dawning on us that we need to reconsider the embargo on cotton exports. There is a serious problem with the embargo on cotton exports. It is evident that we need to take a fresh look at the embargo on cotton exports. The embargo on cotton exports is not working as intended. A new approach is required. A fresh look at the embargo on cotton exports is required.

TT BIG REDUCTION

Brought Him Astonishing Relief.

One day I took a bottle of The Lord's Black Draught. Since then I have not had those awful sick headaches for three months; and it has given me the courage and health to take his advice, although I was so miserable before. My corns have disappeared, and I feel and look the man I was before. It is a wonderful remedy and I am forever grateful.

British Complain of German Plots

Washington, July 16.—At the request of the British Department, the President has called the following case to the attention of the Senate:

During the period of the war, large quantities of contraband goods, including various articles of military equipment, were imported into this country. The Department, however, has recently learned that the British Government is not likely to receive a sufficient share of these goods, and that its interests are not being adequately represented in the United States, in view of the fact that the number of British consular officials in this country is small.

The British Department has, therefore, requested that the Senate take action to ensure that the British Government is represented in the United States, and that the interests of the United States and Great Britain are adequately protected.

Perfect Sanitation Is Typhoid Prevention

The Department of Agriculture has recently issued a report on the prevention of typhoid fever, which is a disease that affects the digestive system and is caused by the ingestion of contaminated food or water. The report emphasizes the importance of proper sanitation in preventing the spread of typhoid fever, and recommends the following measures:

1. Wash hands often with soap and water.
2. Boil water before drinking.
3. Cook food thoroughly.
4. Avoid raw or undercooked meat.
5. Store food properly.

The report also recommends the use of vaccines to prevent the disease, and the establishment of quarantine facilities to isolate those who are infected.

Plan to Condemn Captured Cotton

The Department of Agriculture has recently announced plans to condemn captured cotton, which is illegal under American law. The Department will take action to prevent the sale or use of this cotton, and will seize any cotton that is found to be illegal.

Thaw Gets Home Hailed as a Hero

Major James Thaw, who was wounded in action while serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, has returned home. Thaw was awarded the Medal of Honor for his bravery in battle, and is now recovering at home.

Fiscal Circles Visit Canada

The fiscal circles have recently returned from a visit to Canada, where they inspected the Canadian grain harvest. The circles praised the Canadian government for its efficient and effective organization of the harvest, and recommended that the United States adopt similar methods.

Weish Strike Ends Miners Win Demands

The miners' strike has recently ended, and the miners have won their demands. The strike was caused by the refusal of the coal companies to negotiate with the miners, and by the exploitation of the miners by the coal companies.
