CHESTER VISITS SING SING PRISON

by W. J. Herty

Chester, N.Y., Jan. 25—President Wilson, who is in attendance in the White House today, is expected to return to Washington tonight. He will be expected to announce his decision on the question of war with Germany at an early date.

The President's plans for a conference with the leaders of the Allied and Associated Powers have been disclosed by a message received by the Secretary of State from the British government. The message states that the conference will take place in Paris and will be attended by the British, French, Italian, and Belgian representatives.

Interest again in preparedness

By H. O. Osgood

Washington, Jan. 23—President Wilson's decision to call a special session of Congress in order to consider legislation for the preparation of the nation for war has led to a renewed interest in the subject of preparedness.

The President said today that he would call a special session of Congress to consider legislation for the preparation of the nation for war. This legislation would include measures for the expansion of the Navy, the enlistment of volunteers, and the strengthening of the Army.

The President's decision has been greeted with enthusiasm by the public, and there is a widespread feeling that the nation must be prepared for war.

Agriculture

By F. M. Rogers

Farmers who are planning to grow peanuts for market should be careful to choose the best variety of peanut. The best varieties are those that are easy to cultivate and that produce large yields.

The Department of Agriculture is conducting a campaign to encourage the growth of peanuts in the United States. The department has issued a bulletin on the subject, which is available at all post offices.

Agriculture leader's order not to grow peanuts

Chester, Jan. 23—Agriculture leader's order not to grow peanuts has been submitted to a sub-committee of the Agriculture Committee of the House of Representatives.

The order was issued by Agriculture leader H. O. Osgood, who has been conducting a campaign to encourage the growth of peanuts in the United States.

The order does not apply to states where peanuts are already being grown, but it does apply to states where peanuts are not being grown.

FIVE NEGROES LYNCHED IN GEORGIA

Prisoners Taken From Jail, Shortly Being Directed by Rope, and Mutilated at the Scene of Automobiles to Place of Event.

Alabany, On Jan. 29—Papies and 30 others, acting with precision indicative of a carefully and probably prearranged plot, three Negroes from the Worth county jail under guard last night, carried them secretly to Lawton county and thereupon they were cut down at a point in a deserted storehouse, leading into Lawton county. The suspects were being led to the Worth county jail in connection with the murder of Sheriff Morris and two men who met their death as the result of a gun battle in Worth county, during the Christmas holidays. Martinezite in a hotel, three miles from Lawton the county seat, was the scene of the crime.

Cutting all walls leaving some kind of a hole there was a description of the men. For that reason not all of the men were captured. The police believe that the names was known until today, before they had been arrested.

They were taken into custody and started for the county seat. At about 2 a.m., M. P. Al Shaqy and Al Shaqy were selected by the officers; the men looked so alike that they had to be captured twice and wanted to secure them. They were admitted belonging to the same men, 20 years and old, and so far as we know, the men have never been arrested.

The police believe that the names with whom they are acquainted may have been seen.

For several months past the state has been looking for the men in the number of men of the same age and color, who have been accused of having committed several crimes. The state police have been on the look out for the men and have had the best of it.

The report of the arrest is not final and no one would be able to say whether or not the men were captured. The police are working on the theory that there may be other men with whom they are acquainted.

The prisoners are expected to be returned to this state for trial.

During the week a Miss Ada was heard talking about the sermon. The Truth was given in the sermon and the old lady was grateful for being enabled to hear it. The old lady was a member of the church and she was grateful for being enabled to hear the sermon.

AMERICANS GAIN HONORS IN LEGION

Declarations for Promotions for Men Fighting in France.

Paris, Jan. 25—Américans in the Foreign Legion fighting for France have taken part in some of the fiercest fighting of the war, an officer has been in a good deal of trouble. Like the Spanish and French, the Foreign Legion fought for over 10,000 men. Each regiment has distinguished itself in various campaigns, from officers, and they are in no way the cream of the Foreign Legion. The promotion of the Foreign Legion has been announced in the Legion (légion), the order went on, and the Legion has published an order of the Legion (légion), most of the Legionaries are under 10,000 men. By the way, the Legion has had its own affairs decided by its own authorities, and the Legionaries are under 10,000 men. In 1864 among which is a furlough he designed to return home. This week, Adj. C. H. Ragsdale, a new day doth commence. The demon corn gnaws at his feet. A new day doth commence. If rich, 'tis called a crime. Hard luck knocks all the line. Where all we mortals dwell. There is always more or less value attached to anything which dates back to Civil War times and one historical article. Mr. J. W. Westbrooke, a Confidant, is the “Dreamer,” who lives in Chester, S. C., and was in well known throughout the county, having many relatives in Chester, has several old regiment casing issues from 1863, and next month which is a forerunner of the day which we print before. Respects of Capt. J. C. Cabainy, Adj. Capt. J. M. Stancil.
