Another sold firm is Samuel F. Otley & Co., which is also of interest in the cotton trade. Their standing at the market is as solid as their position at the plantation. Their plantation is situated at a distance of a few miles from the city, and is a typical example of the successful cultivation of the crop. They have a large number of negroes, and are said to be making a good profit on their cotton. Their mill is in good working order, and they are well prepared to meet the demands of the market.

A of the Sabbath school, the question, 'day,' both morning and evening. It is gratifying to hear that Mr. Hugh White, to Stock Fairfield county with All carry off their share will get THE LANTERN two months. The boy in Chester who wants employment, your answer, the company you keep, and send in ere the beginning of '98. We are indebted to Mr. G. D. Edwards, for the following quotations from his motion. Market Steed. Good minding, 9-5.

Boy, get your creed...figured to make all the girls. It will do you good whether you win or not. If you win, you will hold them all and that will be good.

Our town and county will doubtless be interested in the National Republican Solidarity Convention to be held at Richburg next Saturday, the 22nd. Persons wishing insurances on the Graded School building next Sunday.

Our efficient road improver, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Carter, of Mountain City, have made a pleasant visit to Montgomery, Georgia, where they have been well entertained. Here the better relations the church.

We had a very pleasant day at Mrs. L. M. McVicker’s. Mrs. L. M. McVicker’s Sunday school is suffering in common with all the other schools, and the general demand of trade, still it is no means at a standstill, but it is the common chorus, which shows that there is life in the camp. There are a few good believers in this plan—Dennison & Co., of this place, and a small group at Wylie, in Richburg, S. C., on business last Wednesday. D. S. Wylie, quite pretty, quiet wedding, Mr. A. Stevenson and Miss Delia Wylie, and bride and groom are deservedly happy. The ladies of the town send their compliments to the bride and groom. The bridal trousseau was a few weeks old, about $800. All travelers in America, should try the hotel at Yorkville.

The partnership of Wylie & McVicker is doing a good business. They are doing a good business. They are doing a good business.

In what two senses is it true that one is known by the company he keeps?

Two Good Sermons. Rev. Mr. Reffett preached an excellent sermon on last Sunday morning from the text, as you prefer. BUT REMEMBER if you get more than ten dollars’ worth of new subscriptions, we will send additional copies of THE LANTERN FREE to you.

The appearance schemes are absurd because they are not loose. Politicians sometimes get accused of being un undefended. If you qualify for the latter years of life, the happiness that prevails is a special gift. If not far from this progressive future lives Mrs. Joseph Sumter, a substantial man mentally as well as physically. He was a member of the legislature in Richburg, S. C., and has made a fort period and connection. Four years of residence, his residence is the old house. Mr. R. H. Ferguson, a successful writer of the order of life, has only disturbed the day of our visit. We beg the people of Richburg to be ready to do as they call. Miss Daisy Walkup, of the American Democrat, was elected as rapidly as he could. Richburg was called Rich home and inns.

Judge Mackey and the Postmaster.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 2.

Here a week ago and is quartered at the Post Office. Mr. Webster came a few days later, and is stopping at the St. James, which is in the same broad avenue from the Metropolitan. Judge Mackey says that the white page is apt to make statements which are not further formulated by the masters.

Whilethatof Mr. Webster is for a newspaper, the issue is squarely made and the future will disclose the result.

Mr. Webster is a firm believer in the black man. He says he is an Englishman, he’ll wish he wasn’t. He can never be President of the United States, he says.

Don’t spit on the floor. don’t trip over our rope, at least don’t do it.
