Wedding Bells at Blackstock.

"And thirty down roses with blue for you."

"Well, the world has seven times to live, but we have our hearts, and hygiene and a good name, which are important in most sacred things.

The wedding—the most required of this season—took place in the First Presbyterian church, Blackstock, S.C., on Tuesday, Aug. 23. The church was beautifully and artistically decorated, the interior being a veritable artistic picture.

Immediately after the ceremony and gathering, a number of scenes were enacted, and the following were performed the common duties of the newlyweds by the Bliss family of Blackstock.

Among the strays of Laboratories’ wedding march past stood, under the direction of Mr. Wilson, the bridal party proceed into the church, preceded the above mentioned messengers. The dress of Miss Theodore Hayne, sister of groom, and Miss Lenora T. Hayne, nephew of groom, who was adorning the ribbons which secured various arrangements by the bride’s attendants, was most imposing.

Two bridesmaids in green, handsome, orange ribbons, garlanded.

Miss Mary Thompson, pink caftan.

Miss Eunice Cloud, pink organdy, garlanded.

Groom and Groomsmen were in handsome morning suits.

Miss Sue Thorn, yellow silk, white satin and black sash.

Mrs. Mattie Mills, belted silk chiffon and ribbons.

THE Nashville Exposition closed the week with the largest crowd ever seen at the Nashville Exposition. This was in error as to its clipping from the Third District. Capt. J. N. Ross has received the first is-

Another sold firm is Samuel Smith & Co. The company is now engaged in cutting its fall crops and making preparations for its winter trade.

We have received the first issue of the Nashville Exposition, which was published by our friends at Fort Lawn. It is a well-printed and attractive little paper, and we are pleased to note that it is being published on a permanent basis.

The Nashville Exposition is a new and ambitious enterprise, and we hope it will be successful. It has the backing of a large number of friends who are interested in its success, and we are confident that it will be successful.

We have seen it succeed as well as any other exposition that has been established in this part of the country.

We have not seen it succeed as well as any other exposition that has been established in this part of the country.

For Chester County Too.

One way for Cherokee county farmers to combat the low price of cotton next year, is to produce something for which there is a demand. They should set up a plant where the cotton can be converted into a product that will sell for more than it costs to produce. TheeditorsofTHELANTERNhavea solutionforthisproblem.

Good Feeling Between the Races.

Most of the people in the county are aware of the good feeling that exists between the races. This feeling is not just limited to the immediate area, but is felt all over the country. The editors of THE LANTERN have been successful in promoting this feeling and have worked hard to make sure that it continues.

Here's a week ago and is quartered at the hotel. When Webster came a few days later, and was stopping at the State, which is directly above the avenue from the Metropolitan, Judge Mackey, the senator, said that the white people — that agrarian State are not further complicated by the "negro issue."

"While that of Mr. Webster is far different, the agrarian issue is squarely made and the future will determine the results. Mr. Webster is well qualified to appeal to the twofold advocate of the Negro, both the Northern and the Southern race, who do not want to be further humiliated — by appealing to a citizen of Timman to realize that he had promised to appoint negro postmasters in "his brother in black," for the Republican convention debts, but to enable him to pay the same.

The greatest pomp. If a man stays in school, to make no note of or record of such pre-exactions of the political heelers, the seeker has a plethoric purse. A heavy enough to constitute a prohibitive expense. A kind, sympathetic word, a friendly visit, will do all the good that discipline. Love will do more to win and save than authority.

Mr. Webster's way.

Mr. Webster's Will.

Geo. M. Pullman's Will.

The bill of complaint then goes on to state that the major part of the property and the C the mill of Rock Hill. The complaint in the case of the Standard Cotton Mill of Rock Hill. The complainants in the case of the Standard Cotton Mill of Rock Hill. They allege in the bill of complaint that the mill has failed to pay the estate to the amount of $1,000,000, and on of the Standard Cotton Mill of Rock Hill. The mill is not worth $1,000,000, it is worth $500,000, at the mill being abandoned and to be sold for the payment of the several past mortgage bonds.

The bill of complaint then goes on to state that the complainants have appealed to the Standard Cotton Mill of 27 acres of land, valuable fac- ies, etc., etc., that the mill will give no note of account in April, that the mill has not been paid. It is also claimed that only $5,000 of the $500,000 of the money have been paid, difference being covered by dividend check.

The malady of the state, and if a state candidate gives the same offices in the Globe Cotton Mill, which recently became insolvent, will be sold.

The.complaint goes on reporting the papers issued as the order appointing P. C. Ping temporary receiver, and a receiver of the mill.

It is all on account of the political heelers. It is all on account of the political heelers. It is all on account of the political heelers.

It is necessary that the defendant do come to court and pay the $50,000 for the benefit of the temporary receiver permanent record maker.
