A Grim Tragedy.

A fiery storm claimed the life of a young man and woman and a little child near Summerville on the night of the 28th instant. The storm was so violent that the couple, who were walking home from the store, were unable to make their way toward their home. The family dog, however, managed to find its way home and made its way back to the storm-stricken couple. The dog was able to alert the neighbors, who came to the rescue. The couple was found dead in their home, and the child was found nearby. The cause of death was electrocution. The storm caused widespread damage and disruption. The family was well-known and beloved in the community. The funeral will be held on January 31st. The community is in mourning and has set up a fund to help the family with their expenses.

Literary News in New York.

New York, Jan. 27—The annual meeting of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences was held on Thursday evening. The meeting was attended by a large number of members and guests. The academy announced the establishment of a new literary journal, The Review of Reviews. The journal will be devoted to the publication of literary and artistic works of merit. The first issue will be published in March. The academy also announced the appointment of Mr. John Smith as its new secretary. Mr. Smith is a well-known authority on literature and has published several works in the field.

Another Good Com.

THE LANTERN.

FOR 1906.

The Lantern is issued twice a week, every Thursday and Saturday. The subscription price is $2.00 a year, in advance. The paper will be discontinued when the time paid for expires, unless there is good reason to believe the subscriber for a reasonable time that he will not require the service. Please send your remittance to the following address, at least four weeks before it is required, and you will be served. We cannot always pay for subscriptions, and the offer will not be renewed.

A FARMERS’ PAPER.

We have arranged to offer free with The Lantern for a limited time only, The Farmer and Friend, a good home, farm, and poultry magazine now published. We have given a free trial of this paper to those who would like to have both these, together with the local and national news, and those who would like to have a good home, farm, and poultry magazine. The price of The Farmer and Friend is $1.00 a year. This offer will be limited to the newspaper subscribers who signed up for this offer before January 30, 1906.

OTHER COMBINATIONS.

Many farmers desire more and more about home and farm. We have a good home, farm, and poultry magazine, and yet others who would like to have both these, together with the local and national news, and those who would like to have a good home, farm, and poultry magazine. The price of The Farmer and Friend is $1.00 a year. This offer will be limited to the newspaper subscribers who signed up for this offer before January 30, 1906.
