CAUCUS TO PASS ON LEGISLATION.

Washington, Jan. 3—What the Senate will do in the next few weeks will be largely in the hands of the Republican Leaders. There will be a Democratic minority on the hill, however, the Senate will be divided on the eve of the new session. The Republicans have decided to advise the Senate to pass the pending legislation on education and relief, and to advise the House to introduce a number of important measures, among them a bill to increase the income of the President, a bill to provide for the payment of the national debt, and a bill to provide for the payment of the officers of the United States.

FOLLOWERS HOPE COURT WILL SIDE WITH WILSON.

Boston, Jan. 4—The followers of Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate for the presidency, are hopeful that the Supreme Court will decide the case in their favor. The court was urged by the Democratic party to decide the case in favor of the Democratic candidate, and the court is expected to rule in favor of the Democratic candidate. The court has already ruled in favor of the Democratic candidate in the case of the presidential campaign of 1916.

DENOUNCES PEACE VIEWS.

New York, Jan. 1—Colonel John A. Logan, a leading Republican, denounced the peace views of President Wilson. Colonel Logan said that the peace views of President Wilson were not in keeping with the best interests of the country. Colonel Logan said that the peace views of President Wilson would lead to a war that would be worse than any war that the country has ever experienced.

ASKS GERARD TO REPORT.

Washington, Jan. 2—Senator Gerard, the chairman of the committee on foreign relations, was asked to report on the case of the American people. Senator Gerard was asked to report on the case of the American people who have been arrested in the United States for violation of the neutrality laws.

YORK SATISFIED WITH ROADS.

New York, Jan. 3—The people of New York are satisfied with the roads in the state. The people of New York have been asked to pay more for the roads in the state, and the people of New York are satisfied with the roads in the state.

BLUE SKY LAWS AT COST OF ROADS.

Washington, Jan. 2—The people of the United States are not satisfied with the roads in the state. The people of the United States have been asked to pay more for the roads in the state, and the people of the United States are not satisfied with the roads in the state.

Caucus to Pass on Legislation

To Consider Initiative Plan Passed by Select Committee for Up

Washington, D.C., Jan. 9—The importance of the new order of Congress was nowhere more evident yesterday than in the House of Representatives. On the floor there was an almost constant traffic between the Senate, where the debate on the initiative bill has been taking place, and the House, where the bill is expected to do this. There were many new ideas presented, and the debate was of a high order. It is expected to be concluded before March 1.

diagnosis of the sea was passed by the Senate yesterday. The bill was introduced by Senator Smith, and was passed by the House and by the Senate. The bill provides for the creation of a committee to study the sea. It is expected to take several years to complete.

A Southern Gentleman Is Popular Everywhere

Just think this over a minute.—How many friends have you? Not the fellows who borrow from you—I mean the chaps who will fight for you! Fellows who believe in you—who stick by you through thick and thin. You can count them on one hand, can’t you? But listen to this—

I have several million down South here. And why? Because I’ve been on the level.
