While there have been a great many disputes of this last session of Congress. Very few of these have decided upon the same positions. He contends that the present system is unconstitutional, and that the judges and solicitors have not been selected by the people. Mr. DeBruhl also said that the legislature has taken another recess—

COLUMBIA, Feb. 5.—The legislature was in session in the state house. The bill was introduced and both were considered at the same time, and passed during the week.

Last week was the refusal of the house to vote for the appointment of a special judge. There was a similar bill introduced in the senate, and was ordered to a special committee of one lawyer and five members. Many of them are merely campaign material for use next summer.

Letter from Wylies Mill.

Wylies Mill, Feb. 4.—The snow is about gone, and some are very sorry, for the days were enjoying themselves very much hunting rabbits. There were a good many killed around here this year.

Messrs. W. H. Smith and L. E. Gibson went bird hunting yesterday morning and in the afternoon there were joined by Messrs. T. A. Nunnery and Will Edwards. They killed about 25 birds, one dove and a rabbit.

Mr. R. H. Ferguson spent Monday night in Chester.

Mr. D. H. Drum took his wife and two youngest children, Roland and Helen, down to her mother’s Tuesday, where they will spend a few days.

Miss Martha Drum spent Tuesday night with Miss Estelle Ferguson.

Miss Mayme Nunnery spent a few days with Mrs. R. H. Ferguson not long ago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gibson spent from Monday evening until this morning with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Smith.

Miss Mattie Pittman spent Wednesday evening with Mrs. M. L. Ferguson and “F. L. M.”

Messrs. Ed and Brice Pittman went to Rock Hill Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Nunnery are sick and hope he will soon recover.

We were all surprised to hear that Miss Dell Morris was married. She was married to Mr. Jim Stell on Tuesday 26th of January at Richburg. They both live at De Witt, wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Wylle is visiting Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Mrs. C. H. Stanley, who is to lecture on Sabbath morning and evening, went to Rock Hill Wednesday.

Chas. H. Stanley, who is to lecture on Sunday, has proffered greatness. — Newberry Observer.

Perhaps He Rejected a Crown.

“Why have I flung away ambition? Why have I rejected this proffered greatness and been dealt to the entreaties of those who talk only of ‘getting together.’ I want to know what they are getting together for, whether to defend rights or to enter upon a course of pilage.” So exclaimed Mr. J. J. Bryan, an address in New York city this week. Nobody else could have attempted to give Mr. Bryan’s reasons for rejecting it because no body other than Mr. Bryan himself ever knew that he had rejected any proffered greatness. — Newberry Observer.

“rhe Man Who Daren’t” is one of the attributes given to Capt. Cha. H. Stanley, who is to lecture on Sabbath morning and evening, Thursday and Friday evenings, and on Sabbath morning and evening.

At the instance of Representative Lever, Columbia has been selected as the site for a modern bureau observatory. The building and equipment will cost from $10,000 to $15,000.

Halleville Letter.

HALLEVILLE, Feb. 8th, 1904.—Yesterday afternoon, about five o’clock, this community experienced a storm of rain and wind accompanied by thunder and lightning. A great many fruit trees were blown down. Quite a number of people were caught in the rain on their way home from church.

Mr. T. C. Fainley has gone to Columbia and will go into the furnishing business about the fifteenth of this month.

Mr. W. A. Turner, of Stevenson, lost a valuable horse last week. Mr. Turner spent the night at Mr. W. H. Banks’ and on his return home his horse was taken sick and died very suddenly.

Mr. Samuel Weir is building a very large barn. Mr. Weir and Mr. Clowney have ordered a single saw mill and expect to work for the public in the near future.

Mr. Ed Cornwell, of Cornwell, has moved his saw mill to Mr. M. F. Story’s farm.

The Crosbyville school, under the management of Miss Eva Padgett, is rehearsing for an entertain ment.

Mr. S. B. Clowney has bought Mrs. Ellen Crosby’s place adjoining his.

Mr. T. J. Cunningham has been very unwell for several days.

Mr. W. J. Clark is visiting relatives near Stevenson.

Mr. W. S. L. Smith, of Union, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. M. Smith now.

“Cricket” must write oftener. We all enjoyed her letter. — "F. L. M."

cotton-cheviot and linen, in white and colors and in plain or fancy designs, are stylish materials for the tailored shirt-waists.

Ruchings are to adorn not only the semi-formal wear as well. Braids are handsomer than ever and their popularity seemingly greater. Perhaps the most successful is the narrow variety in black or colored silk or mixed colors with a bright finish and in gold, which go admirably with either the white or gray dresses. The military touch, achieved by buttons as well as braids, will be popular even on Summer gowns and wraps. Yokes that run down over the shoulder and epaulette are the prominent features of the new blouses.
