An interesting suit—Mr. Bright has just got here for a theatrical engagement. He is an entirely new acquisition. He speaks in a way that is soothing, and one can understand him. The manager was just last night in New York asking him to come on, and here he is. It is also pleasant to hear a man who is not addicted to the practice of volubility. It seems that Mr. Bright is a member of the firm of Bright and Bancroft, a theatrical agency located in New York. The manager of the theatre has given the promise to do all in his power to make his evening successful.

CHESTER, S. C.
Purity is a Great Thing, Friend!

My folks down South keep telling me: "Be clean and sweet and pure." And I'll bet you I am just about the purest cigarette ever made!

Why, the SOVEREIGN factory is dusted every morning, just like a lady's parlor. That's the sort of home I have. And I've got to make good all the time—in the look of me, and the smoke of me.

The finest, whitest, cleanest home you ever saw. Only the purest, sweetest, richest Virginia and Carolina tobaccos enters there. And when I come out, wrapped in the daintiest of white imported paper—don't you know I am proud to be a SOVEREIGN?

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood! You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

Next to good breeding is good dress and good taste—and I have them all. That's my claim to your friendship. I can't say more, except—

I am guaranteed by the American News—Buy me.

If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
