STOMACH TROUBLE

For FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, but One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pamperston, Ky.—In commenting on the case of Mr. Hughes, Mr. A. J. Smith, one of the friends of the sick man, wrote as follows: "I saw him with his hands before his face. The symptoms were so severe that I thought he was going to die. But I consulted Dr. Black-Draft and was told to give him something to eat. He was given Black-Draft and it worked."

Black-Draft

This preparation has been so successful in many cases of stomach trouble that it is now used by physicians and surgeons all over the country. It is the only preparation that is recommended by the medical profession.
