In this case, there is no need for any image to be present.

The text provided is a newspaper article discussing various topics, including patriotism, self-preservation, and the role of bonds in financing improvements on streets. There is also a section on a product called "CASTORIA" which claims to be useful for "turning over your profits more often, cut down the insurance on each article handled by you, cut the cost of clerking by letting more stock go thru their hands—would that help your business any, would you, if you could?"

A Southern Gentleman Makes a New Friend

I was real tickled today—I made a new friend. And now you bet, he's some tickled, too.

You see, he is a mighty good fellow—son of a big planter—has bundles of money, can buy anything he wants. And he knows all about tobacco.

He was telling around that he would give a hoofer for a cigarette that just hit his smoke taste. So I had them wrap me up and I went to the rich planter man.

"Sir, I am a real cigarette," I said. "I am sure you'll like the hoofer. I have good blood in my veins. I am a fine Virginia and Carolina stock and was raised in a clean, wholesome home. I am a gentleman of quality—The Quality of the South."
