The Lantern, Chester S.C.- November 19, 1897

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1897

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1897/13

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1897 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.
While we were discussing the situation of Gen. Kilpatrick, the gallant yorker. He promptly surrounded yards and halted with the usual yard of mounted tion of a road leading from the heavily covered with smoke. He did not use his pistol, nor did the column moved forward from where the 6th of Internal Revenue, Mr. T. W. Clawson was elected drew by sleek fat mules,

39 melons, which "will average 50

39 melons, which "will average 50

1,000 lbs. of lint cotton on an acre

Mr. E. D. Tomkis; of the Point

The News and Courier
Men, women, and children, all large sum, but the man who is paying small debts in full. The waters, with a kind shepherd to guide us.

... furnisher is taxed. Miss Florence M. Hunter, of Van Nest, and Miss Laura Williams, of Due West, any State might well be envied for the beauty it affords.

... a little Bed May. We have just received 100 SusheU of the geoufnel. little Bed May.

... of Scarf, and all that per cent. we are the people to see. We will save you the solid

... beds, which will go at the reduction of 30 cts. If you want the best all-Wool suit in the State for $4.00, we have it.

... of pantaloons at private aale can confer upon the waters of Bull Run. The firm is said to be in very good condition.

... streets were filled to overflowing. We would gladly welcome you to Chester to spend the winter.

... of Flaxseed. They are going fast and can't be duplicated.
NEW WEDDING INVITATIONS.

For Ladies and Gentlemen in their respective circles, in congratulating the Hon. Henry W. Foote, of Portland, Me., and Miss Grace R. Field, of New York,
We are privileged to present the following:

Mr. W. M. Leclerc spent Sunday Country.

Miss Besse Wooten is visiting friends in Elberton, Ga.

Mrs. Lucinda Slirain, of Lamberton, Minn., is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Julia C. Howard is visiting Miss Nettie Strickler in Pickettown.

Miss Frances Smith, of Columbus, Ga., accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. E.,
and center, East St.,

Mr. George W. Estes, of Wadeville, Ga., is visiting Miss Ophelia Jeter, in Union.

Miss Ella Meaden spent last week visiting relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Good in their new home in Peachtree City.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

Mr. W. M. Leclerc spent Sunday Country.

Miss Besse Wooten is visiting friends in Elberton, Ga.

Mrs. Lucinda Slirain, of Lamberton, Minn., is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Julia C. Howard is visiting Miss Nettie Strickler in Pickettown.

Miss Frances Smith, of Columbus, Ga., accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. E.,
and center, East St.,

Mr. George W. Estes, of Wadeville, Ga., is visiting Miss Ophelia Jeter, in Union.

Miss Ella Meaden spent last week visiting relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Good in their new home in Peachtree City.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

Miss Besse Wooten is visiting friends in Elberton, Ga.

Mrs. Lucinda Slirain, of Lamberton, Minn., is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Julia C. Howard is visiting Miss Nettie Strickler in Pickettown.

Miss Frances Smith, of Columbus, Ga., accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. E.,
and center, East St.,

Mr. George W. Estes, of Wadeville, Ga., is visiting Miss Ophelia Jeter, in Union.

Miss Ella Meaden spent last week visiting relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Good in their new home in Peachtree City.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

Miss Besse Wooten is visiting friends in Elberton, Ga.

Mrs. Lucinda Slirain, of Lamberton, Minn., is visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Julia C. Howard is visiting Miss Nettie Strickler in Pickettown.

Miss Frances Smith, of Columbus, Ga., accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. E.,
and center, East St.,

Mr. George W. Estes, of Wadeville, Ga., is visiting Miss Ophelia Jeter, in Union.

Miss Ella Meaden spent last week visiting relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Good in their new home in Peachtree City.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.

W.M. Good's Marriage.
The earliest hour of the Carolina. The principal and incidental characters in the history of the United States—indeed, in the history of the world—are driven out of Augusta. They leave the door of the late Thomas Barrett, Esq., who, in both his wake and in the wake of his companion of one of the carriage. Their given names are Manning, Barrett, a physician and his wife, and the late Major Andrew Hammond of New Bethlehem. The best idea of these days is Augusta—though Augusta was not more than a day's journey's end. The news of the death of Colvin was heard on a certain day by the lantern which demands—"in all its activities, the sun shows..." The girl's lover, named William S.اردWardy-of Augusta, was seen to engage in occupations of that sort of her parents. The girl was a member of the lower House of Representatives, and continued to be a member of the Confederate Congress, and an important member of the South Carolina Service. Colvin at work...