The Case of Mrs. Nation. The recent trial of Mrs. Nation, of Tennessee, for the murder of her husband, has been a matter of great interest to the public, and has excited much discussion. Mrs. Nation was found guilty of the murder of her husband, and was sentenced to death. The case has been appealed to the Supreme Court, and the decision of that court will be awaited with great interest.

The Fire at the Hotel. A fire occurred at the Hotel on the corner of Main and Market streets, which did great damage. The fire was discovered early in the morning, and was put out by the fire department. The loss will be estimated at several thousand dollars.

The New Law. The new law regarding the sale of intoxicating liquors has been passed by the legislature, and will go into effect on the first of the month. The law is designed to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to regulate the sale of the same. The law has been opposed by many, but has been supported by the majority of the people.

The News of the Day. The news of the day is full of interesting events. The presidential election is coming on, and the campaign is in full swing. The Republicans are strongly supported, and the Democrats are doing their best to carry the state. The election is expected to be a close one, and the outcome will be of great interest.

The Education of the People. The education of the people is a matter of great importance. The legislature has provided for the establishment of new schools, and has increased the appropriations for the support of education. The people are deeply interested in this matter, and are working hard to improve the education of the state.

The Railroad. The railroad is a matter of great importance to the state. The legislature has provided for the construction of a new railroad, which will connect the southern part of the state with the rest of the country. The railroad will be of great benefit to the people, and will open up new possibilities for the development of the state.

The News from the South. The news from the South is full of interest. The people are working hard to improve their condition, and are making great progress. The state is well provided for, and is making good progress in all respects.
Mr. W. T. Wallace has retired from the editorial staff of the Evening Daily News. The condition of his health, it is said, has been a great source of worry to his friends and patients. He has taken up the work of a newspaper man and is soon to be seen in the Daily News office. He is a good man and his decision to give up the work is one of the best for his health. The Daily News will be poorer without him.

Mr. J. A. Morgan, our local to the people of this State in years to come, tomorrow, the news of the death of Mr. N. E. Morgan is received. He was a good man and he will be missed. He was a newspaper man and has been for many years. He was a good man and he will be missed. He was a newspaper man and has been for many years.
