The Rodman-Brown Co.
Down South here folks are mighty keen on stringing things up. We know how to tell the sheep from the goats. There isn't much sense trying to pull the wool over our eyes.

It must be the way we're raised. We get over baby talk pretty early. We soon stop trying to pull any salt on the birds' tails. We learn it's no use to lie.

Yes— we get pretty wise. And I'm mighty pleased to know that millions of men of the South are smoking me.

SOVEREIGN. It's a compliment—it proves that I must be right—that I must be of the finest.

So, I say to myself:—"I am worthy of these fine friends of mine—I keep myself clean, and sweet, and pure. I use it that I live up to my every promise."

And so when my friends refer to my good old Virginia, and Carolina stock, and my fines, which are a home—-I certainly am proud.

Because—

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood!
You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

I want you all to believe in me—I want every cigarette smoker here in the South as a friend. And why not?—I am SOVEREIGN! "King of them All"—Here's another good word for me—

I am guaranteed by the American News—Buy me.
If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known over the world for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
