FIRST PAPER: "PRESIDENT'S DING IN THE WORLD"

London, Feb. 15—The adverse effect of the War on business in the world results from the increased cost of transportation. The great war has made it impossible to transport coal, oil, and other commodities. The railroads are non-competitive and have no means of reducing their rates.

SECOND PAPER: "SUBMARINE WARS"

The submarine peril is increasing day by day. The submarines are able to sink ships of any size.

THIRD PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE EAST"

The war in the East is progressing satisfactorily.

FOURTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE WEST"

The war in the West is also progressing satisfactorily.

FIFTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE SOUTH"

The war in the South is also progressing satisfactorily.

SIXTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE NORTH"

The war in the North is also progressing satisfactorily.

SEVENTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE EAST"

The war in the East is progressing satisfactorily.

EIGHTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE WEST"

The war in the West is also progressing satisfactorily.

NINTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE SOUTH"

The war in the South is also progressing satisfactorily.

TENTH PAPER: "THE WAR IN THE NORTH"

The war in the North is also progressing satisfactorily.
Our next congressman.

Death of Mrs. E. M. Auld.

Two children and a younger sister will be forever deprived of the love and care of a tender mother.

Death of Mrs. T. W. Auld.

Mrs. Mary E. Hunter, niece of Mr. T. W. Auld, died at her home in Chester on Saturday morning. Mrs. Auld was 34 years of age. She was a sister of Mr. William Auld and Mrs. R. L.♦.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church in Chester on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. J. N. H. Blalock officiating. Mrs. Auld was born in Chester, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Auld, and is survived by her husband and two children.

Our next congressman.

Suppose Mr. Sapp is elected as the next congressman for the district but receives a very small vote. If the outcome of the election is decided by a small margin, why do some aspirants for this position of honor fail to assume that Mr. Sapp and Mr. Stevenson are of equal ability to serve in Congress? This is not the way, and when a favor is asked he may not have the proper respect for his position.

HONOR ROLL.

The following is the Honor Roll of the Southern Railway:

S. A. GASTON.

Our next congressman.

In his personal capacity he received more votes than all the other candidates. In the district he got 2,200 votes against 1,500 for Mr. Stevenson, and 1,795 for Mr. Auld. He received 3,786 votes in Rainey county, and a crushing blow which enlists for his cause, personal or collective, moral or political.

Vote for W. F. Stevenson for Congressman.

A Southerner says it—It's true.

It seems somehow that the love of truth is inborn—in every Southerner and it sticks close to him for all his days—just like a lifelong friend.

That's why, friends, when I hear people praising me all over the South—saying "Sovereign is King of Them All"—well, it is true—that's all.

For example, I heard one gentleman say the other day: "Here is the finest cigarette I ever smoked. I never buy any other. The finest product of Virginia and Carolina tobacco. In all its mildness, sweetness and mellowness."

Yes—It's great to be a Sovereign. It's fine to have real breeding back of you, to be brought up in a first-class home, and to hear so many tiges from so many friends down South say to you all. And the reason is just this—it's because you smoke a Sovereign.

Our buyer, Mr. John Frazer, is now in St. Louis where he is personally selecting a car load of big mules, especially suited for the farmers of Chester and adjoining counties.

The scarcity of good mules is known only by those who have visited the markets. The unusually heavy demands on the mule market during recent months makes it almost impossible to obtain the most desirable kind. Our established reputation of many years in dealing with the mule market serves us a good turn now and enables us to secure the very best at the most reasonable prices.

The shipment will arrive the latter part of this week and we urge you to pay us a visit before buying. You will find only the very best stock.
