Scope and Content Note: Jessie Huey Laurence (1886-1971) was a club woman, civic leader, native of Union County, South Carolina and 1907 Winthrop graduate. The collection consists mainly of correspondence but also included are speeches, program notes, minutes, financial records, photographs, clippings, and scrapbooks relating to her role in the South Carolina Federation of Women’s Clubs (1928-1937); her promotion of a compulsory school attendance bill for South Carolina (1934-1936); the formation of the South Carolina Council for the Common Good (1935); Works Progress Administration (WPA) and Public Works Administration (PWA) projects in South Carolina; and her interest in the Catawba Indians of York County, as chairman of Indian Affairs Committee for the Catawba Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Subjects include literacy, Santee-Cooper Dam, Winthrop College, World War II, York County Historical Society, York, Chester, and Lancaster Counties and family history material including: Adams, Craig, Jackson, Lesslie, Lessly, Mull, Muehl, Robinson, Taylor, Weidner, Witherspoon, and Wylie families. The collection is a valuable source on women’s club activities and social history in the twentieth century. While the papers range from 1894 to 1967, the greatest part of the collection extends from the late 1920s to 1957.

Jessie Laurence served in various capacities in women’s clubs including President of the South Carolina Federation of Women’s Clubs (1934-1937), President of the Women’s Council for the Common Good (1935-1938), and South Carolina D.A.R. Chairman of Indian Affairs. Her efforts were largely aimed at South Carolina social improvements in such areas as education, historical and wildlife preservation, health care, and planned parenthood. The related papers for the “General Correspondence and Related Papers” series include: speeches, minutes, programs, financial records, memoranda, photographs, newspaper clippings, scrapbooks, etc.

Transfer of Items: A 1939 W.P.A. sponsored educational survey entitled, A Partial History of Some of the Early Schools and Educational Movements of York County by Palmer Grier Sherer; W.A. Bradford, The Catawba Indians of South Carolina (1946), and a 1935 Papuan Junior Reader were transferred to the TS department of the Dacus Library for review.

DESCRIPTION OF GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE AND RELATED PAPERS

The related papers include: the South Carolina Federation Bulletin (1926-ca1945); addresses and speeches of the South Carolina Federation of Women’s Clubs, Women’s Council for the Common Good, and Daughters of the American Revolution; programs; memoranda; minutes from organizational meetings such as Planned Parenthood Federation of America; photographs; newspaper clippings; scrapbooks and other papers. In chronological order.

1 1-3 Much of the correspondence relates to her activity as publicity chairman of the South Carolina Federation of Women’s Clubs (1928-1930) and as the organization's first vice-president (1931-1934). There is also correspondence with Wil Lou Gray, supervisor of adult school, and other agents concerning her efforts to raise the educational and business standards of South Carolina through her position as Chairman of the Steering Committee, York County Literacy Committee; her involvement in the “Write Your Name” campaign to eradicate illiteracy; and her work as District Organizer for the “Live-At-Home” movement, an attempt to promote South Carolina products. 1928-1933

1-2 4-9 Most of the correspondence concerns her term as president of the South Carolina Federation of Women’s Clubs (1934-1937) during which time she was active in promoting a compulsory school attendance bill; co-founding the Women’s Council for the Common Good; and became involved in the P.W.A. Santee-Cooper Dam controversy. Correspondents relating to this phase of her career include R.M. Jeffries, Governor Olin Johnston, Strom Thurmond, Wil Lou Gray, and Charles Cobb. There is other correspondence pertaining to her presidency and her activity as Regent of the Catawba Chapter of the D.A.R. 1934-1937

2-3 10-16 This correspondence deals with a variety of subjects including the Winthrop College Trustee Bill (1942); establishment of the South Carolina Federation of America's board and business meetings; and W.P.A. projects in South Carolina (Laurence was a member of the Advisory Committee for the Professional and Service Division of the W.P.A.). There is also personal correspondence with a WW II soldier who contributed money to her activities. 1938-1945
