A CONFESSION OF GUILT.

The writer makes no apology for the frankness of this article, he does not believe that it is necessary, as the subject is one which has been quite generally acknowledged by all who have tried to get a glimpse of the behavior of a gentleman during the last few years. It is a subject that has been discussed by many, but seldom has it been brought to the surface so openly and so clearly as to make it impossible for any one to misunderstand its significance.

The fact is, that the gentleman to whom this article refers has been guilty of an offense which is not only a breach of the law, but which is a violation of the moral law as well.
