PARTICIPATION OF THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A strange and it may be added a most remarkable incident occurred on Thursday morning at Chesterfield. On the Canal leading to the river, a large number of people were gathered to witness the arrangement of the machinery for the conveyance of coal from the oranges for the benefit of the public. About 100 people were present, and the machinery was operated in a perfect manner. The machinery was then turned over to the management of a local firm, who promised to keep it in good order and operate it in the manner prescribed by the engineers.

REVOLUTIONARY INCIDENT.

The following letter was received in Chesterfield from Mr. J. R. Parry:

To the Editor of the Chesterfield Standard:

Chesterfield, January 10, 1857.

Sir: I beg to call your attention to the following important incident which occurred in this town last week. A member of the town council, named James Brown, was discovered to be engaged in a plot to overthrow the government. He was arrested and immediately tried and convicted.

Respectfully,

J. R. Parry.

MOUNTAIN MAN AMMON. V.

March 30, 1857.

My Dear Sir: I have the honor to inform you that the mountain man, Ammon, has returned from his journey westward, and is now at the head of the mountains. He has brought with him a valuable stock of furs, and is looking for a market.

I am, etc.,
