There are a score of religious ideas which are held by many Jews and Gentiles alike, under which the Jew never lack for ideas on how to be a good Jew. Many of these ideas are of great value to the Jew, but they have a tendency to make him believe that if he will do these things in his daily life, he will be a good Jew. But this is not so. There are no such ideas as these that will make a Jew a good Jew. There is only one way to be a good Jew, and that is by living his life according to the teachings of the Talmud. The Talmud is the only guide for the Jew in his daily life, and if he follows the teachings of the Talmud, he will be a good Jew.
