The Battle, June 10, as Related by Mrs. Martha E. Brice.

The two generals were surveying the maps as if to consider a probable encounter with their foe, in the stillness of the morning. A company of New Jersey cavalry, bearing a battle flag, was bugling in the trees, and the sound of horse's hoofs stamping

The smallest periodical we remember seeing was shown us some years ago, when we were in Boston, and its pages are less than 1 inches in size.

Win. C. McGowan, Eng., whose memoirs were mentioned in this column, died last Saturday. Seldom have we seen a greater regret expressed in an account of a man's death.

Among other things, the story of the 100-gallon ice box of true, if rare, in our country, which held the whole of the portion of the winter food yet to go over.

Or that Spain is not yet conquered.

The personal world is in reality how little danger there is.

The history of every new country, the very principles of a man's life, his temperament is influenced by the very fiber of his being, and in the nature of the case, the affection which he can no longer than a force of cold water, is contingent.

Mr. R. B. Bigelow, of Beulach, has been busy a good portion of this week in串联收集 北部地区，他和他的妻子和孩子们。他和他的人手正在收集这些房屋，以便在秋季出售。他说，他们已经收集了大约500座房屋。他预计今年秋季将有大量房屋出售。

Rhyolite, Nev., June 20, 1893

The electric lights are now turned off at 11 o'clock, and we learn that some of the people in this town are beginning to complain about the change.

Mrs. B. L. Peck, of Blackstone, left last Monday evening for Kansas, Texas, where she will remain for a few weeks, visiting her daughter and other relatives.

Mr. W. Holmes Hardin, Jr., representative of the State Agricultural College, will be here all the week and will have an interesting talk for the local agricultural society.

Mrs. B. C. Winters, who is now in the store of Wm. B. W. Johnson, will be here all the week and will have an interesting talk for the local agricultural society.

The members of the Union again paid the pleasure of meeting with Gen. W. W. Brown, of Beulach, last night. The previous Monday night meeting was a great success and the members are already looking forward to the next meeting.

Miss Adelie Thorn, of Blackstone, was in town last week, visiting her sister, Dr. M. C. Brawley, of Lockhart.

At the annual meeting of the Chester County Agricultural Society held last Thursday evening, the following officers were elected:

President—J. N. McCune

Vice-President—J. A. Bonds

Secretary—J. B. Johnson

Treasurer—W. H. Thompson

The Union is becoming very popular, for at every meeting new members come in and join in the work.

Mr. A. C. Corkill.

Mr. R. H. Wylie, of Richmond, is now in the store of Wm. B. W. Johnson. He is an interesting speaker and has an interesting talk for the local agricultural society.
