SATURDAY, APRIL 19

A PRAIRIE

1. God of the wind, and waves, and trees—
2. God of the rain—
3. God of the clear-warning whipstrokes, the fearful signals running around with the drum of God's voice—

In the prairies, the storms, and in the fields of God's creation, one must be a faithful friend, a true and loyal companion.

The Johnsonian has been highly praised for its wit and humor in fun andserious articles. The editors of the Johnsonian are to be congratulated on their efforts in providing quality content for the students.

It is with mingled emotions that we present the April issue of the Johnsonian. We are thrilled to share what we have created, but we also feel a sense of loss, as this is the last issue of the academic year.

The Johnsonian, under the leadership of Mrs. Bartlett, has been a significant part of the Winthrop College experience for many students. We are grateful for the opportunity to serve our community and hope that our efforts have been appreciated.

April 19th marks the end of a season, but it also signals the beginning of a new one. We wish everyone a wonderful summer and look forward to seeing you all next year!

WHEN IT COMES TO SERVICE

As a conservative banking and trust institution, the Citizens Bank and Trust Company strictly observes every rule and enforces which aids in safety, economy and conduct in banking practice.

But when it comes to rendering a really constructive, helpful service to our customers, we are not only prepared for it, but ready and anxious to do it for them. We pay as little as a really human and useful institution. Continuity or prospective confidence is always easily gained with us in ways in which we can be of service.
