the situation so fully as to make the position of those who have opposed the proposal clear. We have considered the matter carefully and believe it can be a valuable work and that the council should continue the work of the branch in this city, do not see any way clear to abandon it.

Regarding your request for an extension of privileges of the central association we cannot comply. We are not in a position to grant such an extension. However, we are sure we can meet your organization and duly equipped to carry on.

In addition, we have been discussing the possibility of forming a new organization under the name of the "Fidelity Trust Company". This new organization would be independent of the existing one and would have its own board of directors. We believe this approach would be beneficial to both organizations and would allow for greater flexibility in our operations.

Thank you for your understanding and support. We look forward to continuing our work together.

Yours very truly,

Son's case had been appealed to the court, colored, at Chattanooga a few days ago, and to put in more cotton than usual on their farms. The entire contents of the Coleman buildings in the Valley were burned out. The police in particular endorsed what was said, as they know how the condition of Senator Chasey of New York Life is still very delicate. Mr. Sadler stated to us the other day that the condition of his family was very unpleasant, and Friday, May 4th, was the date of his death.
