AMERICAN AGAIN ARE ADVISED TO GET OUT OF MEXICO

WASHINGTON, D.C. (U.S. Dept. of State) — The Government advises Americans to avoid travel to Mexico and to leave the country if they are already there. This advice comes in the wake of several violent incidents and the general unease caused by the ongoing conflict between Mexico and the United States.

TEUTONIC DRIVE MAKES HEADWAY

The Teutonic drive continues to make headway, with the Germans launching a major offensive in the east. Despite the initial success, the Allies are pushing back and the situation remains tense.

EDISON WILL AID MILITIA

Thomas Edison has offered to aid the militia in their efforts to suppress the Teutonic drive. His assistance will be crucial in the ongoing struggle.

MAY USE GROUND PHOSPHATE

The U.S. military may consider using ground phosphate to fortify their positions in the east. This move could provide a strategic advantage in the ongoing conflict.

DISCLAIMS BLAME FOR SINKING SHIP

The German government has denied any responsibility for the sinking of the American liner. The incident remains under investigation.

ENGINES DAMAGED ON AMERICAN LINER

The engines of the American liner have been damaged, causing concern about their ability to complete the journey. The situation is under close watch.

CALL MACHINE GUN DEADLIEST WEAPON

The machine gun is considered the deadliest weapon of the war, as it allows rapid fire and mass destruction. The German army is reportedly increasing its use.
