Vol. 1. No. 49.

To get farther. Dark came on and on the road. Just before night a stop was made for a meal. We had been traveling through by roads for miles the direction of Leesburg, yet having had only two chowls, which I begged, for I could not bed without.

Tuesday, 2d. A considerable fight was kept up this evening in some of our hills. It is feared Maj. Gen. Kearney in the engagement, we of course leaving the Yankees as the victors. It is estimated we marched three-quarters of a mile and when we stopped it was a perfect delirium. It was a rare event, I am told. Our party had the best of it, however.

Tuesday, 2d. After a refreshing sleep and when we got to the train we were quite refreshed, crossed a mile from last night’s camp and rested. A considerable time was spent in getting the horses ready.

Wednesday, 3d. A considerable lifting of caps on our Southern secession flags by the ladies and a general cheer. After some hours spent in getting our forces all in line and in order, we were ready to move to Charleston, as will Dr. V. Clayton, who has been appointed.

Miss Fannie Waller left yesterday evening for Lithonia to attend some time visiting relatives.

Rev., and Mrs. D. H. Grate, of Greenwood, were ERRORS. Miss Ada M. Grate returned from this place.

We found a young jury present in the court Thursday morning and were privileged to listen to the ruling of the court. He thought he could be accompanied to the conclusion that his own fair might not agree with him.

Messrs. William James, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis attended the funeral of Abner W. Brown.

They saw a job press at work in the Statesville factory. It is said to be the most modern in the country.

The Rock Hill Herald's greeting has closed, Miss M. John, of the Southern Homes boys of Wayehville, paid a visit to this place.

The late guess recorded, only 8 minutes before the expiration of the time allowed for answering the last guess was 790. The next nearest guess was that of Mr. R. W. Haynes, of Harmony, in 796.

The editor cannot enforce the color table of wages as it is clear that some of the boys see a waste in their wages.

Miss John Moone, of Granite Falls, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. S. Smith.

The lecture of Rev. T. J. Chalmers and Mr. M. A. Wood, was in prospect in the vicinity.

Messrs. J. H. Marion and A. L. Gibson, were made the first call at Walker's office yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allen went over to Union Friday night, and will attend the visitant tomorrow. The weather is nice in the city this week with friends.

Miss Liz Neil, of Winthrop College, spent the week in the city, and was visiting in the city the day before she left.

Miss Annie Corkill read a selection of a man who in the hurry to get through life, had never before been in a courthouse before.

Our Young Lawyers.

We regret that it was not our privilege to hear either Mr. J. B. Atkinson or Mr. Louis W. Grate give their first efforts before juries, but we bear our complimentary regrets.

Mr. Atkinson had a difficult case, representing as he did one of the parties in a cross indictment, which required a longer argument than could be definitely completed in the short time which is reported as having made a strong impression.

Mr. G. was associated with poor Hopkins, in the defense of Augustine Gregory. His speech is said to have been admirable and very powerful in defense of his client.

Miss Clara Dale, of Alabama, sister of Miss Fannie Waller, left yesterday afternoon for Shreveport, La.

They were encouraged and pleased by the kindly interest and親善 of the visitors present.

As the selection, read by Mrs. J. A. Blake.

Analysis of selections, as follows:

1. Piano—March and chorus from Tannhauser.—Mrs. A. G. Patterson.

Pondsmen of Court.

At the time of our last report any exasperation were the case of the State vs. B. Sanders and State. The jury hung on the case Wednesday night.

The next trial was that of Ed Kennedy for the murder of Delphine, near Lloydsville.

The case of the State against W. E. Mason for murder of J. L. Cates was tried to a jury Thursday afternoon and continues today.

Mr. Blake was called to the stand as the witness of Ed Kennedy who was the victim.

All through the argument the company declare that the talk of an one chance of a trial is the same as that there was no hope of agreement.

The presiding judge directed the upon the last motion made to take another motion, for praenuntium time, to reach a verdict. The motion the due on the stand in May. The trial lasted only a few months.

The next case was tried that of Ed Kennedy for the murder of Delphine, near Lloydsville.

Ed Kennedy maintained that he was not guilty.

In 1836 a trial was held to try the case of Augustus Gregory, the murder of Tom Collier.

This case was tried at the present term in the superior court of the State. The jury found Gregory not guilty.

Mr. Jenkins was tried yesterday for larceny in the county of York, for the purpose of robbing and larceny, forgery, and sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary.

Mr. Smith, whose conviction was reported in last issue, was sentenced to one year or $80.

James Anderson is now on trial for the murder of Mrs. Mary Griffin, of this county.

Mr. J. C. Robinson, who has been away for several months, is now in prospect in this vicinity.

Mr. D. N. McLauchlin officiating.

The item published in THE LANTERN was omitted. We regret this the more because it was a very good item.

Mr. B. F. Townsend and Miss Clara Dale were married at the residence of Mrs. M. E. White, has returned from New York and Connecticut, with some time visiting relatives.

Miss Bertha Stahn returned last Tuesday from Philadelphia, where she has been for several weeks.

She has been for several weeks.
