The Northern Cotton Mills.

The following excellent article on the cotton industry is reprinted in the situation of the Northern Cotton Mills.

The Northern Cotton Mills are one of the largest in the country, producing a high grade of cotton goods. The manufacturing process is highly mechanized, ensuring quality and efficiency. The mill's success is attributed to its efficient management and the skilled labor force. With ongoing improvements, the Northern Cotton Mills are poised for continued growth in the cotton industry.

Next Year's Tax Levy.

The Commissioner of Finance has announced the amounts of tax that will be levied for the coming year, effective July 1. The tax rates are designed to ensure fair distribution of the tax burden among the taxpayers. The levy includes property taxes, income taxes, and sales taxes. The Commissioner has emphasized the importance of timely payment to avoid penalties and ensure the smooth functioning of governmental operations.

Hail to the New Year.

As we迎来新年，愿大家在新的一年里幸福安康，事业有成。让我们共同期待和庆祝这一重要时刻，为我们的生活注入新的希望和活力。新年快乐！

The Antillean.

Dr. John Douglass, a prominent historical figure, has written extensively on the role of the United States in the Caribbean. His works have contributed significantly to our understanding of the region's history, culture, and political dynamics. Douglass's insights continue to inspire and inform scholars and policymakers today.

The master, being one of the many who saw the light in the days of darkness, may have been the same man who, in his time, was a leader in the fight against slave trade. He is remembered for his devotion to freedom and his unwavering commitment to the cause of emancipation. His legacy lives on through the efforts of those who continue to strive for justice and equality.

Lowryville Letter.

The holiday season has passed off without any serious accident.

Among the college people home to spend Christmas, we note Miss-bliss, who was home visiting her cousin, Minnie Lou Allen from Columbus. Miss Bliss is one of the popular girls of the class and all of them are glad to have these bright young people home to spend the holidays.

Miss Will Hayes, of Easley, S. C., is here visiting her parents.

Miss Mary Dower is visiting her cousin, Miss Ada

Rev. F. J. Sum is from Constance to spend a few days with his family.

Miss Gusle and Isabel Guy gave a Christmas party on Monday evening, complimentary to their friend, Mr. Arthur Darby, who is visiting his relatives in the town of the people were present, and all appeared to en-

Miss D. G. Anderson gave a dinner party on Tuesday evening, to which she gave a description of the costumes worn on this occasion, but we were informed that many of them were very beautiful. All the young ladies appeared to be very happy and pleased with the entertainment.

Our popular postmistress and marke, A. D. Darby, went out for the New Year at two o'clock. The hour of his return would indicate that he had a good time.

One of the most enjoyable social functions of the season was given at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Miller. Among the guests we noted, Mr. and Mrs. Lowry, Rev. F. J. Sum, Mr. and Mrs. Mooney, Miss Ross, Prof. and Mrs. Sydnaschool social, entertained by beautiful piano music by the charming Miss Helen Mooney, who also gave a solo with an accompaniment of the daughter of the great hero and heroine of the day.

The afternoon passed all too swiftly, and when the guests departed it was noted that one more day of unalloyed pleasure had been spent in the society of friends. The list of cards that never fade from memory.

With the closing of the year, let us all do best wishes for the New Year, that it may soon dawn.
