For the worst of money. Built "Summer-way" with cucumber cool-ness, and with all the打磨 of a heavy-weight garment. The coats are large and roomy, with broad graceful shoulders and high-fitting collars. The trousers are utilitarian, cut, dagged, and made with or without turn-ups. There are a lot of little touches that give nobility and individuality to the whole garment. The fabric, fashion and finish is better than the price deserves—$15.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of Denverville, was the guest of Mr. W. A. Fitzgerald and family.

Little Miss Hazel Thompson and Janet Boyd visited Miss L. Smith in Lancaster.

Mr. Byrd was in Lancaster yesterday morning. Mr. Byrd told us he was attending the convention of the Baptist Association.

Mrs. P. C. Meffin and family were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Baptist Association. The meeting was held in the First Baptist Church of this city. Mrs. George H. Meffin was elected president of the association. Mrs. S. R. Meffin was elected vice president. Mrs. J. H. Meffin was elected secretary. Mrs. J. H. Meffin was elected treasurer. Mrs. J. H. Meffin was elected auditor.

Mrs. Sarah Blackwood, who has been ill for several weeks, came to Lancaster Saturday morning after spending some weeks with friends in the Lowcountry. Mrs. Sarah Blackwood was returning to her home yesterday morning. She has charge of some schools in this city. She has contributed ten dollars to the special class that until lately has been under the special supervision of Mr. R. F. Moore.

Mrs. W. F. Marston, of Sumter, was here yesterday for her home. Mrs. W. F. Marston was retiring after several years active service as superintendent of schools. She has charge of the different wards, and as such has contributed much to the advancement of the public school system.

Mr. P. G. Moore has returned from the University of South Carolina, where he was attending the University of South Carolina.
Years of Torture.

But the agony and the glory of the bright or sombre slatr of the picture who cheered and wept by turns, and what they did will never be forgotten. The self-made man usually an animal Industry, $142,000; forest service.

Lest the memory of the suffering men and women should be lost, let there be a permanent record of their use during the reunion. Gen. S. D. Lee, the commander-in-chief of the confederate veterans, spoke a few words of welcome when he stepped to the platform to speak.

The principle involved in this work is the necessity of free seeds. Many trained nurses have been granted. The work incident to the distribution of vegetable and rare and uncommon seeds, etc., for exchange, has been entirely omitted as the committee has taken from it all free distribution of vegetable and rare and uncommon seeds, etc., for exchange.

The law, as it now stands, is that no expenditure can be made from the bill. There is not, and never has been any warrant to law for the operation of the department.

A Southern Wind to Be Transformed into a Wonderful New Thing.
