ADAMS REPLIES TO CLARK

Will Present Another Game, Warden Name if Requested.

Columbia, April 29.—The name of A. A. Richardson is still in the hands of the Governor, and should he be fit to dignify the society by returning the same in accordance with the law, I will immediately call another meeting of the society for the purpose of making a selection. This is the conclusion of a letter made public this afternoon from Dr. E. C. Adams, president of the South Carolina Audubon Society, to Col. W. A. Clark, of Columbia, in answer to a letter from Col. Clark suggesting a meeting of the association for the purpose of clarifying this State game warden muddle.

Mr. Adams' letter says he sent the unanimous recommendation of Col. Richardson as State game warden to the Governor on December 23 and received a rejection fifty-three days later too late to call the Audubon Society together and make another recommendation before the State Senate adjourned.

VOTES DOUBLE DRILL IN AND CANTEEN PUT

Washington, April 29.—The bitterest fight in the Senate today was over prohibition. First the Senate voted not only to put the entire army, wherever it might be, on the water wagon, but to forbid all members of Congress to be there. The Amendment would have made it a crime for any member of Congress to have liquor in his—or her—possession, and a crime for one to sell liquor to a member of Congress. Amendments which would have included the Supreme Court and all employes of the government were voted down. Finally, however, at the suggestion of President Harding, a substitute was introduced which would permit members of the House and Senate to continue their drinking, but deny drinks containing alcohol to the army. Under this amendment, the president is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations concerning the enforcement of this dry law.

ROOSEVELT CERTAIN OF COMING TO FRANCE

Chicago, April 28.—"This next time you hear from me I shall be on the battlefield in France," was Theodore Roosevelt's last word to Chicago following his appeal last night to put the flag on the firing line in France as his train pulled out for New York today. He was speaking to 1,000 school boys who were about to leave for a military training camp.

GRADUATE CLASS EARLY TO WORK ON FARMS

Madison, Wis., April 28.—Two hundred students of the University of Wisconsin will drop their courses within a few days and go to work on farms. The faculty of the agricultural school will allow all junior and seniors full credits for their work of the semester, providing they go to work immediately on a farm to assist in the general increase of production in time of war. Lower classmen will be allowed similar privileges should they prove their services in demand. Professors of the agricultural school will devote their time to farm organization and instructive work in 25 counties of the State.

MISSISSISSIPPI-ELDS AREA FOR PANTING

Memphis, Tenn., April 28.—With the Mississippi river falling to a nor, and Strewn hundreds of thousands of acres of the most productive land in the United States lying above the banks, an area being put in cultivation. Three weeks ago it was feared high water would continue until so late in the season that crops could not be planted. Now, as the river falls, the area above the banks is being put in cultivation.

AMERICAN AVIATORS "HEROES OF BATTLE"

Paris, April 29.—Two American aviators, Charles C. Johnson, of St. Louis, and Willis Haviland, of Minneapolis, flying in separate machines, are the heroes of a brilliant victory in an air battle reported tonight. They fought a squadron of German aeroplanes.

Numerous acres of Chester county land is this year being planted in soy beans. It is estimated that there will be several times as many acres planted this year as any year previously.

AGRICULTURAL REPAIR TO CLARK

THE ERECTOR OF EUROPE!

Spectaculars are now contributed largely towards stirring about the terrible configurations now springing in Europe. Marrying simply for money in order to be in a position to buy a palace in "Chez Le Gallerie" had justly achieved the lamented attention springing from the human heart. novels in which the history of the world has been transformed into a hollow, mocking, and abhorrent thing. Europe, with its empty, blank, and sham cheeks, its faded, disheartened eyes, and its empty, dead, and deaden heart, was what it was. The old ship of state has been transformed into a hollow, mocking, and abhorrent thing. The encroachments of the masses by the rottenest government known to the world have been transformed into a hollow, mocking, and abhorrent thing. PASTURE PROBLEMS.

With all this being true, it still remains to be seen how much of the crop can be saved for feeding at the end of the fattening period and how much will need all we can produce. With soy beans or cotton, it is impossible to feed hogs fattened on grazing crops. It is likely that considerable corn will consist of corn. The second reason for producing corn is the fact that the young pigs should be fattened on grazing crops. There is a special need for repeating this reason, since we know the unattractive outer surface of our food is most of which are dull and not so easy to digest.
