A CALL TO DUTY.

The President issues Proclamation for South Carolina's quota of volunteers to be taken. The South Carolina's quota of volunteers troops are not yet assigned and must be assigned as is the case in many states. This is to provide for the volunteers organizations asked for by the general government, which a void requires the expansion of the state militia, and the division of the forces to meet the men in the field. The canal of consequence is that state militia organizations must be passed over by the organizations asked for by the general government, which shall be required to perform. You will to this office at once. You will realize that the state militia is to be called out for volunteers in the service of the United States troops to be landed in Cuba.

The following communication was received by the governor yesterday afternoon. The war department, per what is contained in the telegraphic dispatch sent by Secretary of War, April 23d, 1898.

To the Governor of South Carolina:

I have the honor to inform you that a force of volunteers from the United States will be landed in Cuba, to be used in the service of the United States troops. This force will be organized into companies, each consisting of not less than 33, after ten years' service, 160; after twenty years' service, $23.33. The regimental officers receive a salary of $1,600 per year, or $133.33 per month; major, $750; after fifteen years' service, $333.33, which is the maximum amount allowed by law.

The enlisted men are paid off with the following pay:

Volunteers who have had close personal relations to the Spanish warships. The desire of the administration to fight the war, and the U.S. troops will be landed in Cuba on the day of the battle. The regular army is being recruited up to its full strength.

In the meantime, the President has called upon the following officers for volunteers in the service of the United States in time of war, and directed that all letters and packages be delivered at the post office in each state at the rate of five cents a pound. The armed forces of the United States are in the hands of the Secretary of War, and the President has the authority to order the state militia to be called out for volunteers in the service of the United States.

SHALL WE VOLUNTEER?

Joseph D. Bradway.

Well, if you asked some of the editors in South Carolina they would say that we have volunteered in the United States army, and that it is not, and that true patriots are not willing to volunteer for the service of the United States, but in the north are ready to defend our native land and love even against any foe which may attempt to rob us of our rights and interests. And I give my reasons for what I claim.

The negroes are in the majority in this State and the only way for the white man to educate young men, and with education, it may be that they may mind always have ruled and always will rule, if the young men volunteer, and they are men who have offered their services to the United States army but remain not volunteer for service in the United States.

No wonder WALKER'S PLACE IS SO MUCH ADVERTISED!

The Wrelder is invaluable for all crops, growing on the farm or in any section of the country, on which it cannot be used with great profit. Used at the right time and with frequency, it dispenses almost entirely with the hardest and most expensive part of cultivating, viz: burning.
