NEW COAST GUN.

With a shot of steel 200 miles would blow any war-ship to atoms. A U.S. field gun was fired on Cape Henry, Va., in April, 1898, and it was estimated that the shot would destroy any war-ship in the world. The gun was a 20-inch caliber artillery piece, fired from a ship. The shot traveled 200 miles before it hit the water. The gun was designed to be used against large ships, and it was capable of firing a shell with enough force to penetrate the armor of any war-ship in the world.

In 1896 men offered to lie down and let Washington be the capital. 'A few years later, they turned the offer down, and a few years after that they shot him with another who had not a single straight line on a map for a representation of the state, and had published himself a burglar and a diagram to prove it. They forced him down and shaved him, in order to address his own people. A little while ago, a state was dissolved and presented amazing facts to the world, one of the most noble in the whole country. It was a state which had been once a group of counties, and had been dissolved by a few misanthropes, who had once been the leaders of the movement to organize it. The state was a republic, and had been dissolved by a few misanthropes, who had once been the leaders of the movement to dissolve it.

To Raders Africa.
Camp Hill, Ala., May 10—In the recent elections a major victory was achieved by the negroes. The negroes won the majority of the votes in the state and the color line was crossed.

"What caused us to win and how to better ourselves?" asked one of the negro voters.

"We voted," he said, "and the results are in. We have won the right to be heard."

Vladimir, toward McKinley."

"Yes, I am glad," said the negro, "but I am not satisfied."

"Why not, if you have won?"

"Because we still have much to do."

"What do you mean?"

"We have won the right to vote, but we have not won the right to be heard."

"But you can vote now."

"Yes, that is true. But it is not enough."

"What do you need?"

"We need a voice."

"And you will get it."

"Thank you."

Vladimir went on to thank the negroes for their hard work and dedication.

Two Neighbors cured of DROPSY.

Dietary, 272c., was prescribed by Doctor S. M. Jones, of this village, for the cure of a woman who had been suffering from dropsy for many years.

"This is a purely vegetable preparation," said Doctor Jones. "It is made up of the finest quality of grass and herbs, and is a sure cure for all forms of dropsy."

"I have been trying everything," said the woman. "I have tried diuretics and other remedies, but nothing has worked."

"You will find this remedy effective," said Doctor Jones. "It has cured many people who have been suffering from dropsy for years."

"I will try it," said the woman. "I have nothing to lose."

She took the remedy and her condition improved steadily. After a few weeks, she was completely cured.

"This is a wonderful preparation," she said. "I could not have been more pleased."

"I am glad to hear that," said Doctor Jones. "I have never seen a more effective remedy for dropsy."

"I will recommend it to everyone," said the woman. "It is the best cure for dropsy that I have ever heard of."

"I am sure you will," said Doctor Jones. "It is a sure cure for all forms of dropsy."

Vladimir and Battle,

"That is the way it is," said Gallery. "People love nature and beauty, and they want to be healthy."

"But they do not always want to be healthy," said Vladimir. "Sometimes they want to be sick."

"I understand," said Gallery. "But we cannot prevent them from being sick."

"I know," said Vladimir. "But I wish we could."

"There is nothing we can do about it," said Gallery. "We must let nature take its course."

Vladimir and Battle,

"That is true," said Gallery. "But we can try to help people when they are sick."

"That is true," said Vladimir. "But we cannot help everyone."

"I know," said Gallery. "But we can help as many people as we can."

"I agree," said Vladimir. "We must try to help everyone."
