Colonel Ashton.

His Military Training—The Fighting Blood in His Veins.

Col. Joseph K. Ashton's scores of friends were delighted yesterday morning when they learned that the old colonel was still alive. A military man has this to say of the old soldier:

"A life-time study and a superb military education had secured for him the permanent title of a colonel. At that time in command of a regiment, he was elected president of the state..."

The governor has never made a more fitting appointment. Joseph Ashton is a capable man, disinterested and well-versed in military science.

The Law of Blockade.

There are complexities in the law of blockade; and the necessity for stringent enforcement of the provisions of the law is made clear, especially that of the dairy, thus in peril. The water supply must first be considered.

The War Collect.

Worth-Cross Sanatorium of the Episcopal Church has issued the following:

To the Clergy of the Diocese:

In recent years, the War Collect has been involved in various charitable causes, including the relief of wounded soldiers and the provision of food and clothing for the families of those who have fallen in the service of their country. The War Collect is a testament to the generosity and sacrifice of the American people during a time of great adversity.

The Ranger.

"Why this site was selected will perchance be a puzzle to the layman. As it now stands, it can be nothing but a matter of regret that the lands are not more valuable, and the subsoil saturated with water, the ground is not used for agricultural purposes.

<td>On Tuesday evening, April 19th, the following named gentlemen gave the county chain gang a fine supper: H. H. Godwin, J. U. Godwin, H. C. Godwin, H. J. Lynch, S. T. Gaskins, E. F. Prosser, J. H. Blackwell and J. L. Stuckey. Chickens, turkeys, guineas, rice, biscuits, jelly-cake, pound-cake and other good things were furnished in abundance. Some of the convicts did not eat any dinner, drinking sweetened water, waiting for supper time. Several good citizens came down and took supper with us besides those named above.</td>
