ARMENIA NEWS

We are still watching the clouds hanging low. With the help of the light, everything will be peaceful and the future will be hopeful.

The farmers' convention meeting which was held in Armenia last week, was one of the most important meetings in the history of the region. The main purpose of the meeting was to discuss the current situation and to make plans for the future. Many farmers, both white and colored, attended the meeting.

The White Hussars will be the subject of a very special feature at a show next week. The Hussars are a group of soldiers from the Appleton Fire Insurance Association, and they are known for their skills in battle.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Elliott, of Mrs. J. H. Varborough, and the family of Mrs. J. W. Atkinson, will be present at the funeral service for Mrs. E. L. Steele, the daughter of Mrs. J. H. Varborough. About thirty ladies were present and everything was in order. Mrs. Elliott will regret to learn of her father's death. Mrs. Elliott, who resides in the city of Denver, has been in ill health for some time and it is believed that her death was caused by the resignation of Mr. W. H. Atkinson, who is known as "a candidate for the presidency.""

The Yankee farmer makes $500 more a year than we do. We are as smart as he is and must learn to make this extra $500, too.

The Progressive Farmer will carry every week for the next six months notable articles by Prof. W. F. Massey, "the Grand Old Man of Southern Agriculture" on "$500 More a Year for the Southern Farmer: How to Get It"

Here are some of the subjects Prof. Massey will discuss, each article telling how do that job:
1. We Must Keep Learning as Long as We Live.
2. We Must Raise Abundant Winter Foods—Potatoes, Fruit, Peas, Beans, Turnips, Etc.
3. We Must Make Boys and Girls Partners in Farm Work.
4. We Must Learn Greater Economics in Farm and Home Management.
5. We Must Learn Better Business in Buying, Selling, and Keeping Accounts.
6. We Must Give More Attention to Pastures and Meadows.
7. We Must Improve Our Methods of Cultivation.
8. We Must Increase the Output of Crop Yields.
9. We Must Keep the Soil in Good Condition.
10. We Must Make More Use of Manure, Fertilizer, and Lime.
11. We Must Learn the Value of Manure and Learn How to Use It Correctly.
12. We Must Plant a Crop of Winter Wheat or Other Winter Crop.
13. We Must Use More Horse Power and Machinery.
14. We Must Learn Better Methods of Laying Out Field and Pasture Land.
15. We Must Inquire Why We Make Less Than the North or Western Farmer.
16. We Must Have our Lands Richer.
17. We Must Diversify So as to Make the South Feed Itself.
18. We Must Use More Horse Power and Machinery.
19. We Must Learn Better Methods of Laying Out Field and Pasture Land.
20. We Must Adopt Wiser Methods of Farming. And Prof. Massey's page is only one of fifty features that have made The Progressive Farmer "The Farm Paper with the Punch."

It suits every member of the family—not only giving the farmer himself the best help, but also providing the best farm woman's page in America and a superb Young People's page.

Concerning Mme. Julia Claussen, prima donna contralto of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, who is to appear here on the closing night of the Chautauqua, Karleton Hackett, music critic on the Chicago Evening Post, says:

"There may be greater Wagnerian singers than Julia Claussen, but I have heard all that this land affords and spent the summer of 1914 in Germany listening to their most famous, and I found none that was her superior. But has the sustained beauty of tone, the volume for the full climax, the strength to carry the phrase through to the end without fatigue, and makes these gifts of some avail she has the brain and heart to conceive the force of the thing.*

Glenn Dillard Gunn in the Chicago Tribune, Jan. 3, 1913, wrote: "Mme. Julia Claussen, distinguished Swedish contralto, made her American debut as Ortrud in the season's first performance of 'Lohengrin' last night. She achieved that immediate and complete recognition which is the portion only of the world's greatest singers, a fact which may be the more positively asserted since that small and select company was further represented in the cast by Clarence Whitehill, who was the Telramund. Thanks to the vocal and dramatic gifts of these two notable figures in the world of song, the great moment of the second act was lifted to heights of art as impressive as any sustained by Mr. Buffo."

W. J. Henderson in the New York Sun wrote: "Mme. Claussen sang her numbers with an opulent display of voice and dramatic energy."

Pitts Sanborn in the New York Globe says: "To an extraordinary vocal capacity adds admirable qualities of interpretation. The effectiveness with which she sang things in every way so different as Schubert's 'Erlkonig' and the prison air of Fides from 'The Prophet' indicates her versatility."

The New York Evening Mail comments: "Mme. Claussen is almost unique among contraltos in preserving a characteristic quality of tone even in her high notes."
