5-10-1898

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- May 10, 1898

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1898

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1898/37
WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, May 6.—Washington has not had such a week of rejoicing in many years as the past one has been. The people were more or less surprised when they expected that Commodore Schley was going to open battle but the armada he had assembled was more like a hurricane and swept away the Spanish ships. It was just as sure to be about $300,000,000; Secretary of War Cameron has charged the army with not being in a condition to do battle.

The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.

General Cameron has issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large. The postmaster general issued a large amount of orders this week for new mail bags. The amount of mail received has been very large.
Italy is having bread riots and much disorder.

Sampson, remember that you have the reputation of your ancient name to maintain.

Dewey left the Spanish commander telling him that he would cleave his way through the Spanish vessels: Reina Cristina, Cosco, Doña Sofia, and Santa Isabel. But the American is unique in a few of the Spanish—wounded. Only tonight probably to cope with him. The Allied fleets are composed to meet defiance here.

The new fleet directly from the Spanish fleet was received Saturday, and is given below.

The President's secretaries received the news.

Sampson's victory over the Spanish fleet.

We are having rather cool weather for May. Crops look tolerably well. The Statistical Bureau of the United States is expecting to have to plant.

Miss Anna Burdell has returned.

Rev. C. E. McDonald, of Winnemucca, is visiting relatives in Reno. Miss Anna Burdell has returned from a visit to relatives in this neighborhood. Crops look tolerably well. The Statistical Bureau of the United States is expecting to have to plant.

Rev. E. P. Hudson preached a sermon on Peace of Gospel in the First Congregational Church, Sunday afternoon with the Misses Burdell.

S. C. PROFIT has been accorded for the consideration the president, sent the following remarks:

"I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas, and will bid on it for you and do it at a low price."

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

The Best Salve in the world for Rashes and Inflammations.

The State.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.

Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was well pleased with Mr. W. M. Corkill as a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the State of Texas.
Yorkville, spent Sunday in the city. Mrs. James Fudge and her mother, Mrs. John Gunn, went to Yorkville yesterday morning. A number of others are expected to follow this morning and tonight.

Mrs. J. W. P. Cope and children, who have been visiting relatives in this city for some time, have left for Oklahoma where they will take their family home.

One of the visitors to this city from the west last week was Miss Sallie Leister and her mother, Mrs. Sallie Leister, who are visiting relatives in the West.

Mr. H. Melton went to the opera house yesterday evening and attended the performance of "Ruth." He said he enjoyed the performance and would definitely go again when the play is performed again.

Miss Johnsie Kell, daughter of Dr. John Kell, spent the weekend at Columbia and returned yesterday.

Since the big fire in Rock Hill, people of all races have been visiting the city to see the damage and to help in the recovery process.

Mr. J. S. McKeown, who returned from his trip to New York, spent Sunday at the Buggy company's shops, where he worked on the restoration of an old horse-drawn vehicle.

Mr. J. O. Wylie went to Charlotte yesterday to attend a meeting of the local branch of the Democratic party. He said he is very concerned about the future of the Democratic party and is working hard to ensure its success.

Messrs. Thos. Gresham and L. W. W. T. Tillinghast, of the Palmetto Literary Club, have announced that there will be a meeting for conference at the Palmetto Literary Clubhouse today at 10 a.m.

The new school room of the Palmetto Literary Club was held at the Palmetto Literary Clubhouse yesterday evening. The meeting was attended by many members of the club and was very successful.

Mr. John F. Smith, of the Rock Hill Gazette, was present at the meeting and reported that the club is growing stronger with each passing day.

Mr. J. S. Wilson tells a war story about his service during the Civil War. He said he was a member of the 1st North Carolina Infantry and was captured by the Union forces near Gettysburg.

Mrs. J. S. Wilson, who was present at the meeting, said she was very proud of her husband and his service during the war.

Mr. J. B. Blackstock, who was also present at the meeting, said he was a member of the 1st North Carolina Infantry and was captured by the Union forces near Gettysburg.

Mr. J. S. Wilson, who was present at the meeting, said he was very proud of his husband and his service during the war.

Mr. J. B. Blackstock, who was also present at the meeting, said he was a member of the 1st North Carolina Infantry and was captured by the Union forces near Gettysburg.
The count paused at that. Again they proceeded or failed. The scene in the street was exciting. They both saw the danger and rushed to the assistance of the king. Kolinski, already a hero, was now a hero in the eyes of the people. He had risked his life for the king, and his courage was admired by all. The king followed, and again Kolinski spoke.

"Come," said Kolinski roughly. "We cannot wait here."

"For your own life," offered the king, "you must come with me."

"But my men," said Kolinski, "they will follow."

"They are your men," answered the king. "They will follow you."

"And I have sworn," said Kolinski, "to protect you.

"Sworn to protect," repeated the king. "And yet—you see, Kolinski—"

"Your Majesty," said Kolinski, "I have sworn to protect you, and I will do so."

"I want your brains," said the king. "Your brains are the most valuable thing you have."

"Your Majesty," said Kolinski, "I will do my best to protect you."

"Come," said the king. "We must go."

Kolinski and the king walked together through the trees. They came to the convent of Bialynik. The convent was a place of safety, and the king felt safe there. They entered the convent and were received by the monks. The king was given a place to rest, and Kolinski was given a place to sleep. The next morning, the king and Kolinski left the convent and went on their way. The king was grateful to Kolinski for his help, and Kolinski was proud of his service to his king.