5-13-1904

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- May 13, 1904

J T. Bigham

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1904

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1904/37
God so loved the world that He

... accustomed to congratulate the...

... the universal Judgment of the...

... possess the highest...

... giving. In creation...

... the better off he...

... to heaven to find their...

... atmosphere...

... clouds receive the vapor...

... The ocean receives the water...

... Hence to learn the lesson...

... not be avoided; but (ha less he can...

... atmosphere...

... it touches...

... "Come ye blessed of My Father...

... Is the man...

... the fruit of his labors...

... the bounty...

... They were surprised to infer...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... but uneducated, was...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... Dr. Lowry felt his pulse...

... Rydale's Elixir speedily cures...

... stubbornly and are hard to cure. Ross will send a shipment of 25...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... to the Pittsburgh...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... all...

... to the Pittsburgh...

... and after getting the mouth open...

... and after getting the mouth open...
The property of the people of Beaconville is preserving a good time at Rev. A. A. White’s parsonage on the 1st. They are making out special invitations to the dames of Beaconville’s former pastors, and a general invitation is extended to the public. The invitations are accompanied by a request that those coming from a distance should send their names to the parsonage, as they contribute supplies for the purpose.

Following in the program for the day:
- 4:45 p.m. - Song Service.
- 5:00 p.m. - Address of Welcome by Rev. W. W. McCrady.
- 5:10 p.m. - Address by Rev. A. H. White.
- 5:45 p.m. - Address by Mrs. R. Wilson.
- 6:00 p.m. - Written Messages.
- 6:30 p.m. - History of Beaconville.
- 7:15 p.m. - N. E. Hirt.
- 7:45 p.m. - Address—Rev. G. E. Smith.

Next Monday, 16th, will be known as a New Day at Haller’s.

Money is Cheap.

Less than two years ago, Mr. N. Hirt, an industrious farmer, who lives near“What is the most suitable, in what matter that we have ever heard about?”

Of the excellences which the farmers and others have for the B&W Creamery, no better way could be found. The address of the farmers and other farmers, who have elected to be members, will be made known on the 16th, and will consist of everything that is right and wrong, as well as many more wrong ways.

Beckowick’s Black.

This agent is driven by a heavy rain (not a snow storm) and is accompanied by heavy gusts of wind and a peculiar quality, and tender plants were damaged.

Miss Letitia Jackson has been visiting her cousins, the Norths Galliard, at Covington.

Mr. James Wilson, of Lynd, and Mr. Hay’s brother-in-law, is expected Saturday night and Saturday morning.

M. E. Strother and M. E. Kanter, of Atlanta, are visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rayburn, of Lawrenceville, are visiting relatives.

Mr. George Varnadoe and Miss Clark, are at the hotel at about 7 p.m., who are very well. She is being led about by Mrs. John Johnson.

Mr. Turner Varnadoe has purchased a new stove and will move.

We extend hearty congratulations to the new owners.

The Hahn-Lowrance Compy.

(No pay charged on all orders amounting to $10 and under.)

The Landmark Office.

The property of the people of Beaconville is preserving a good time at Rev. A. A. White’s parsonage on the 1st. They are making out special invitations to the dames of Beaconville’s former pastors, and a general invitation is extended to the public. The invitations are accompanied by a request that those coming from a distance should send their names to the parsonage, as they contribute supplies for the purpose.

Following in the program for the day:
- 4:45 p.m. - Song Service.
- 5:00 p.m. - Address of Welcome by Rev. W. W. McCrady.
- 5:10 p.m. - Address by Rev. A. H. White.
- 5:45 p.m. - Address by Mrs. R. Wilson.
- 6:00 p.m. - Written Messages.
- 6:30 p.m. - History of Beaconville.
- 7:15 p.m. - N. E. Hirt.
- 7:45 p.m. - Address—Rev. G. E. Smith.

Next Monday, 16th, will be known as a New Day at Haller’s.

Money is Cheap.

Less than two years ago, Mr. N. Hirt, an industrious farmer, who lives near.”

Of the excellences which the farmers and others have for the B&W Creamery, no better way could be found. The address of the farmers and other farmers, who have elected to be members, will be made known on the 16th, and will consist of everything that is right and wrong, as well as many more wrong ways.

Beckowick’s Black.

This agent is driven by a heavy rain (not a snow storm) and is accompanied by heavy gusts of wind and a peculiar quality, and tender plants were damaged.

Miss Letitia Jackson has been visiting her cousins, the Norths Galliard, at Covington.

Mr. James Wilson, of Lynd, and Mr. Hay’s brother-in-law, is expected Saturday night and Saturday morning.

M. E. Strother and M. E. Kanter, of Atlanta, are visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rayburn, of Lawrenceville, are visiting relatives.

Mr. George Varnadoe and Miss Clark, are at the hotel at about 7 p.m., who are very well. She is being led about by Mrs. John Johnson.

Mr. Turner Varnadoe has purchased a new stove and will move.

We extend hearty congratulations to the new owners.

The Hahn-Lowrance Compy.

(No pay charged on all orders amounting to $10 and under.)

The Landmark Office.

The property of the people of Beaconville is preserving a good time at Rev. A. A. White’s parsonage on the 1st. They are making out special invitations to the dames of Beaconville’s former pastors, and a general invitation is extended to the public. The invitations are accompanied by a request that those coming from a distance should send their names to the parsonage, as they contribute supplies for the purpose.

Following in the program for the day:
- 4:45 p.m. - Song Service.
- 5:00 p.m. - Address of Welcome by Rev. W. W. McCrady.
- 5:10 p.m. - Address by Rev. A. H. White.
- 5:45 p.m. - Address by Mrs. R. Wilson.
- 6:00 p.m. - Written Messages.
- 6:30 p.m. - History of Beaconville.
- 7:15 p.m. - N. E. Hirt.
- 7:45 p.m. - Address—Rev. G. E. Smith.

Next Monday, 16th, will be known as a New Day at Haller’s.

Money is Cheap.

Less than two years ago, Mr. N. Hirt, an industrious farmer, who lives near. A...
The Best Money

The Least Money

Our New Motto for 1904:

We will always have something Cheaper and Everything as Cheap.

For the present and until further notice we will sell the Finest Whole Head Rind 15 lb. for $1.90. Next week we will sell the Finest Head Rind 15 lb. for $1.75. A splendid 3 lb. Standard Deenest Peacht 1903 for 75 cents. You can't beat that. Next week we will sell the Finest Head Rind 15 lb. for $1.65. A very good Head Rind at an attractive price.

We Have Everything Kept in a First Class Grocery Store, Heavy and Fancy. Just received one car of Carrot Meal, one car of Oats, one car of Cotton Seed Meal, one car of Molasses, one car of Beet Seed.

TO THE FARMERS! If you haven't seen Alexander on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, or the other days, call him at the right time and he will see you. We are going to give you the best and cheapest goods. If you haven't seen our goods, you haven't had them. We have the best goods in the market. We are going to give you the best and cheapest goods. If you haven't seen our goods, you haven't had them.

Irvin & Culver

FOLLY'S HONEY-DEAR

TOE NICHOLSON FURNITURE STORES

It is quite an economy as well as a Luxury

In more ways than one. It is so much easier and cleaner that in itself is such a saving of time and labor as we have ever seen. It will be a great convenience to the customers. We are going to have the best and cheapest goods. If you haven't seen our goods, you haven't had them.

DURABILITY AND COST

You will also carefully consider and then just see if you can help from purchasing a good big bill.

The Waters & Spratt Company

When You Buy

FURNITURE

You must depend on a large extent on the honesty of the dealer.

B-BAD

WE ARE NOT ANGELS

If you are not in the business of our keep, then whatever you buy of us must be as we represent it to you. We are not in the business of being honest. We have been in the business of being honest ever since we have been in the business of being honest. If you are not in the business of being honest, you have no business being here.

We Can Save You One-Fourth on Your Furniture Purchases

Come to see us. Get our price and let us show you how our goods at such prices are a great saving to our customers. We will give you the best and cheapest goods. If you haven't seen our goods, you haven't had them.

The NICHOLSON FURNITURE STORES