WASHINGTON, May 31.—In a speech last evening, Mr. Whisonant referred to the matter of the establishment of the home estate in New Jersey, and said that it might be governed as isolated a state institution as the Washington Hospital for the Insane. He expressed the opinion that the state should take over the management of the institution, and that it would be better for the state to do so than for the federal government to do it. Mr. Whisonant said that the state had not yet been able to place the institution on a satisfactory basis. He said that the state had been willing to do this, but that the federal government had not been willing to assist in the management of the institution.

The PROPER STUDY OF LIVER DISEASE

The following is a true story; that if any man will take time to read it, he will learn a lesson.

Many years ago, when the older persons of the little village lived in the community in which we live, we always knew when Jimmie was ill. Jimmie was the oldest of the old folks in town, and they had a nickname for him. They called him "Jimmie." He was a fine fellow, a hardworking, old-fashioned man. He had been born and raised in the same community as the rest of us. He was married and had several children. When he was ill, his family took care of him. They gave him the best care possible. Jimmie's illness was caused by his own fault. He had always worked hard, but he had also been excessive in his work. He had been overexposed to wind and weather. This had caused him to become ill. Jimmie's illness was not a common one, and it was not easily cured. He was taken to the hospital, where he was treated for his illness. He eventually recovered and returned to his work. He lived for many years, and he was a respected member of the community.

The Red Cross is working to help people who are affected by the war. They are providing food, clothing, and medical care to those who need it. The Red Cross is also working to help those who have been displaced by the war. They are helping people to find housing and work. The Red Cross is doing a great deal of work to help people who are affected by the war.
To the Parents of School Children

You will be called on Tuesday, May 16, to decide whether you will be willing to levy four more mills of special local tax to the school authorities of Chester County. This matter is to be voted on at the next regular meeting of the School Board. No millage will be added to the present tax. All funds and surplus from any previous millages will be used in the work of the schools. The tax will be levied for a period of three years and will be used for the purchase of new school buildings and equipment.

BEAUTIFYING THE CAPITAL.

It is a beautiful time to think of Washington, the "heart of the nation." It has the most extensive park system of any city, and, thanks to the progressive spirit of its people, this beauty is constantly being improved. For public parks alone, there is a large project.

In keeping with the general idea for beautifying Washington in the autumn, the United States Park Commission is endeavoring to have school children be educated insofar as our parks are concerned. The first step was taken several months ago when a plan was carried out a year ago at which time 12,000 packages of seeds were distributed by the park service to the school children of the city. The plan was used by the youngsters. Washingtonians are all agreeable to this movement, which may well be extended to every city and village in the country. As a result of this school work plan, it is expected to work out their individual problems and the cultivation of flowers will be born really among the children.

The Country Road.

For an ex-Congressman to walk a day and a night is something, and it is by no means the first trip of this kind that Simmons, 137 Saluda St., has made. The man is a character. He has lived under every condition—and he has a Carnegie library, too.

As an educational lecturer, he is probably at the head of his class. He was educated at the University of Vermont, and he is capable man.

T. W. F. Belknap, of the last order, is a hotsie-totsie visitor today.

The Dog.

I've never known a dog to wag its tail, nor yet with its ears down, the way the yellow-furred one I know today, was when I was a boy. The trouble with, I think, is, that I have never known a dog to show Affection for his own, and to do so in a way that is clearly marked on the face.

Weekly Semi-Weekly News and Progressive Farmer, $1.50
The proposal of the School Board is to increase our special local tax of one mill from 1914 to 1915. The tax is not, as some think, solely doubling the school tax. Children in the 3rd and 4th grades and to furnish the materials for the same.

A man to teach domestic science and sewing to the girls of the district. What would you succeed in some studies now required?

For Those who are not going to college or those who can't afford a college preparatory course and to provide for these students a manual training and domestic science building, with a science laboratory, an art gallery, and a gymnasium to provide the facilities for the education of those who are not fitted for a college preparatory course and to provide these with the training and instruction, while they are in high school, that a mill increase, while seemingly high, is, in reality, only a moderate increase.

Chester is not going to lag in the educational procession; she is the second city in the State in number of graduating students and the third in percentage of graduating students of the proposed 4 mills special tax, will go into the school here. The expense of the proposed improvements in Chester is not going to lag in the educational procession; she is the second city in the State in number of graduating students and the third in percentage of graduating students.

This program will give Chester a community high school in which all who wish to study will have the opportunity to obtain the education necessary for their careers. This is not, as some may think, a 4 mill increase, while seemingly high, is, in reality, only a moderate increase.

All Medical Treatment Failed to Give Mrs. Taylor's Daughter Ease.

RESULTS REMARKABLE.

Mrs. Taylor of Columbus, says: "The doctors did not know what was the matter with my daughter, but it had to be something serious. She had lost weight and lacked energy. The doctors did not know what to do. They suggested a change of climate, but I decided to try Tanlac first. It was a wonderful cure. I never knew anything like it. I think the work of Tanlac is all wonder. I wish everyone could have the relief it gave my daughter."

Nine years ago Tanlac was given her daughter. It relieved her so much that she could hardly believe it. Her system was in a terrible condition. She had lost weight and lacked energy. The doctors did not know what to do. They suggested a change of climate, but I decided to try Tanlac first. It was a wonderful cure. I never knew anything like it. I think the work of Tanlac is all wonder. I wish everyone could have the relief it gave my daughter."
