FREEDOM FOR DUBLIN FOLK

British Premier's Invitation Re-Be Responsible for

Dublin, May 14.—The great demonstration in favor of the government's attitude of freedom of movement strongly recommended by Lord Beaconsfield received in Dublin on Monday. The demonstration, which was attended by thousands of people, was a clear indication of the support given to the Premier's policy by the people of the city. The Premier's attitude is expected to be further strengthened by the recent events in the country, which have shown the value of the government's policies. The Premier is expected to continue his efforts to restore peace and order in the country.

The Five Weeks Again.

"Do you know how many revolutions there have been in the world in the last five weeks?" asked Mr. Grafton, addressing thevr audience. "Yes, I do. There have been at least twenty, and I don't know how many more. But the most remarkable one of all was the revolution of Mr. Asquith in the cabinet. It was a mighty revolution, and it will change the face of the country."

I have problems with my adopted county.

The Premier is responsible for the adjustment of the Irish crisis and in no small measure the Premier of Ireland. The Premier is a great statesman, and his ability to adjust the Irish crisis is beyond question. The Premier is expected to continue his efforts to restore peace and order in the country.

The great majority of Irishmen, in my view, should be satisfied with the government's policies. The Premier is a great statesman, and his ability to adjust the Irish crisis is beyond question. The Premier is expected to continue his efforts to restore peace and order in the country.
