Favorite Books Topic of Next Assembly Program

Kinnard, Howe, Wheeler, And Burgess Give Discussion—Ballots Piling All Students Indicate General Campus Preference

Assembly next Thursday will be devoted to a discussion of the favorite books of the past five years, with Mrs. James P. Kinnard, wife of the president-elect, Miss Lucille Mayo, librarian at Training School, Dr. Paul McCawley Wheeler, head of the English department, and Dorisburg, former editor of The Journal, participating.

The program will be based on an idea used for a summer school assembly two years ago by Miss Kinnard, who suggested the idea, will open with my favorite Book or Two in the Past Five Years. Similar talks will be given by Dr. Wheeler and Miss Mayo. Dorisburg will give another talk of a similar sort—students will indicate the books they have read and the comments placed in the hands of all students.

NOTE: The booknotes are asked to note the books they have read in the past five years of their tenure at the University, to write down the books they have read, and to vote on the books they have read. The votes are not to be limited to the books read, but are to be limited to the books read in the past five years.

Citizen Kane To Be Shown Tonight

Accounted for one of the most original and most important motion picture premieres ever to come out of Hollywood, Dorisburg described "Citizen Kane" as "the greatest single achievement in the history of the screen."

As the title indicates, the film deals with the career of an American citizen, Charles Foster Kane, as told through the eyes of his former wife, Billie, and his former mistress, Rose Selway. The film, produced by RKO, with a cast of thousands, was directed by Orson Welles, who also wrote the screenplay. The film has been described by many as the most important motion picture of the year.
