J T. Bingham
The Seventh from the Day

Chester, S. C., Tuesday, May 24, 1904.

SINCE God is the holy one, He may be called for a change. Clearly there was a change in our Lord's life during the sixth day. It is not the Sabbath. What seventh day is this? Is it the command we read, “Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work.” God, not the eighth or ninth day. The first question to be settled is where our Lord was observed the first day. There is evidence to prove that only one individual was at His tomb. What was His day? The Lord’s Day? The “Lord’s Day” then must mean the day of the week. Evidently then, the Lord’s Day was not observed by the first day of the week. Therefore, the expression “the seventh from the day” was made by the first Christians observed, not by the Jews. One day is no more in my mind than another. Why should there be any rivalry among Christians. Notwithstanding the fact there was some rivalry among Christians, some among the delegates. Mr. Calvin Pursel was one of them. He was arrested and after being languished in the jail for some years, Mr. Calvin Pursel was released on $1,000 bond. He waived examination and was released. His name is J. M. Mills. He is a physician who prescribed for Cholera Remedy, straightly at $1 per bottle, started on for Yorkville with him.” prohibition, the injustice of dispensation.
